ORDINARY RATES OF POSTAGE AND CONDITIONS OF TRANSMISSION.

*Inland Letters.**

1. The rates of postage when prepaid are as follows:—

For a letter not above 1 oz.	- -	1d.
“ above 1 oz. but not above 2 oz.		1½d.
“ “ 2 oz.	“	4 oz. 2d.
“ “ 4 oz.	“	6 oz. 2½d.
“ “ 6 oz.	“	8 oz. 3d.
“ “ 8 oz.	“	10 oz. 3½d.
“ “ 10 oz.	“	12 oz. 4d.

and so on at the rate of ½d. for every additional 2 oz.

2. A letter posted unpaid is chargeable on delivery with double postage; if insufficiently prepaid, with double the deficiency.

3. No letter may be above 18 inches in length, 9 inches in width, or 6 inches in depth, unless it be sent to or from a government office.

All letters containing instruction to the Postmaster as to the re-direction of letters, should have written on envelope “Re-direction of Letters;” such an intimation will cause the letters to be attended to at once.

Inland Newspapers.

1. The prepaid postage on every registered inland newspaper, whether posted singly or with others in a packet, is one halfpenny; but a packet containing two or more registered newspapers is not chargeable with a higher rate than would be chargeable on a book-packet of the same weight.

2. A newspaper or a packet of newspapers posted unpaid is chargeable on delivery with double postage; if insufficiently paid, with double the deficiency.

3. Any publication fulfilling the subjoined conditions can, upon payment of an annual fee of 5s., be registered at the General Post Office for circulation within the United Kingdom as a newspaper.

a. The publication must consist wholly or in great part of political or other news, or of articles relating thereto, or to other current topics, with or without advertisements.

b. It must be printed and published in the United Kingdom, and in numbers at intervals of not more than seven days.

c. The full title and date of publication must be printed at the top of the first page, and the whole or part of the title, and the date, at the top of every subsequent page. This regulation applies also to “Tables of Contents” and “Indices.”

d. A supplement must consist wholly or in great part of matter like that of a newspaper, or of advertisements, printed on a sheet or sheets, or a piece or pieces of paper put together at some one part of the newspaper, whether gummed or stitched up with the newspaper or not; or it must consist wholly or in part of engravings, prints, or lithographs illustrative of articles in the paper. It must in every case be published with the paper, and have its title and date printed at the top of every page, except that any page, sheet, or side on which engravings, prints, or lithographs illustrative of articles in the paper appear, need not be dated.

* Inland Letters, parcels, or other postal packets are those which pass between places in the United Kingdom, including the Isle of Man, the Orkney, Shetland, Scilly, and Channel Islands.

4. The title of every newspaper should be exposed to view.

5. All publications not so registered are treated as book packets, and are subject to the rates and regulations of the Book Post.

6. A newspaper, if posted in a cover, must have such cover open at both ends, so as to admit of the paper being easily withdrawn for examination.

7. No newspaper and no cover of a newspaper may bear anything besides the title of the newspaper, the names and addresses of the sender and of the addressee, and a reference to any page of, or place in, the newspaper to which the attention of the addressee is directed. †

8. No unregistered publication, and no article (not being part of the newspaper, or a supplement thereto) may be posted in, or in the same cover with, the newspaper.

9. Any newspaper, or packet of newspapers, in the case of which any of the three last-mentioned rules is infringed, is chargeable as book-packet, if admissible as such. If not admissible as such, and under 8 oz. in weight, it is chargeable as a letter packet; if over 8 oz., it is transferred to the Parcel Post and charged a fine of 1d. in addition to any deficient parcel postage.

10. A packet of registered newspapers must not weigh above 14 lbs., or exceed 2 feet in length, 1 foot in width, or 1 in depth.

1. The prepaid postage of a book-packet is ½d. for every 2 oz. or part of 2 oz. If it be posted unpaid the charge is double that amount; if partly paid, double the deficiency.

2. The expression “book-packet” means a packet which contains one or more of the following articles or documents, that is to say:—

a. Any matter wholly printed on paper or some substance ordinarily used for printing.

b. Books and other publications or works of a literary character, and any other written or printed matter not being in the nature of a letter (on paper or on some substance ordinarily used for writing or printing).

c. Sketches, drawings, paintings, photographs, and engravings on paper or on some substance ordinarily used for the purpose, provided it is not a brittle or exceptionally fragile substance.

d. Maps, plans, and charts on paper or some other substance ordinarily used for the purpose, provided it is not a brittle or exceptionally fragile substance.

e. The binding or mounting of any article hereinbefore described, provided such binding or mounting be of a kind ordinarily used for the purpose, be not made of glass or any brittle or exceptionally fragile substance, and be transmitted in the same packet with the article in respect of which it is used.

The following documents, whether containing matter in the nature of a letter or not, provided they respectively conform to the following conditions:—

† In order that no failure may occur in the delivery of newspapers through the covers becoming detached, it is recommended that the addresses be written on exposed parts of the newspapers themselves as well as on the covers.

f. Invoices, orders for goods, credit notes, advice notes, way bills, bills of lading, receipts, statements of account, prices current, market reports.

(Provided that nothing shall appear in writing on the document save dates, the names and addresses of the parties, the particulars and prices of any goods, or the particulars of any sums of money to which the document relates, and the mode of consignment of any such goods or money.)

g. Manuscript for press and printed proofs, with corrections and instructions.

(Provided that any written or printed matter not forming part of the document itself refer solely to the arrangement or correction of the type or the execution of the work.)

h. Examination papers, with corrections and instructions.

(Provided that any written or printed matter not forming part of the document itself refer solely to the questions put or the answers thereto.)

i. Circulars, that is, printed notices and letters, whether separate or on the same sheet of paper with any other document transmissible by Book Post.*

(The circular may be corrected in writing; the date of the despatch and the name and address and description of the sender and the name of the addressee may be inserted in writing; when the circular is a notice of meeting or appointment, the place, date and hour, and, in the case of a notice of meeting, the objects of the meeting may be inserted in writing; when the circular is a polling card, the name and address of the voter and his number on the register may be inserted in writing.)

Any of the documents mentioned under the head (f) may be in the form of a letter, or may be incorporated with a circular letter, as defined under the head (i), provided that nothing appears in writing except the particulars allowed to appear in writing in circulars (i), or in documents of class (f).

j. Deeds, agreements, proposals and policies of assurance, powers of attorney, proxy papers, voting papers, certificates, licenses.

(Provided that nothing appear in the document in writing or print which does not form part of the document as a legal instrument.)

k. Notices, reports, returns, and certificates issued, made, or given by officers of a Court of Justice, or other public officers in the discharge of their duties, and returns or reports made to the public officers or public bodies.

(Provided that the document consist of a printed form, and that any written matter on such document consist merely of information or statements appropriate to the form and necessary to the completion of the document.)

l. Anything necessary or convenient for the safe transmission of any of the before-mentioned articles by post when transmitted in the same packet with the article in respect of which it is so used.

In the above definition—

* Circulars which are in other respects admissible, but which are printed or lithographed in characters resembling those of the type-writer, or are produced by means of the mimeograph or other mechanical process from type-written originals, will nevertheless be admitted to the privilege of the book rate, provided that they are posted by being handed in at the counter of some head post office or district or branch post office, that special attention is called to their nature, and that at least twenty copies, precisely identical, are posted at the same time.

Expressions referring to print or printing shall be taken to refer to any species of type-printing easy to recognize, and to include lithography, hand-stamping, or any mechanical process ordinarily used to produce a number of identical copies of written matter, and easy to recognize, but not to include type-writing or imitations thereof.

Expressions referring to writing shall be taken to include type-writing or any mechanical or other process ordinarily used to produce a single document.

3. Book-packets should be posted either without covers (in which case they must not be fastened in any way) or in unfastened envelopes or in covers which can be easily removed for the purposes of examination. If anything is written or printed on the inside of the covers, the covers must be left unfastened. It is not forbidden to tie the ends of a book-packet with string, but the string should be easy to unfasten.

4. No book-packet may exceed 5 lbs. in weight, 1 ft. 6 in. in length, 9 in. in width, or 6 in. in depth, unless it be sent to or from a Government Office.

5. A book-packet in the case of which either Rule 2 or Rule 3 is infringed is chargeable, if under 8 oz. in weight, as a letter packet, and if over 8 oz. it is transferred to the Parcel Post and charged a fine of 1d. in addition to any deficient parcel postage. When Rule 4 is infringed the packet is in all cases transferred to the Parcel Post.

6. When, owing to an unusually heavy influx of letters, books, &c., the transmission or delivery of the letters would be delayed if the whole mail were dealt with indiscriminately, book-packets may be kept back till the next despatch or delivery.

Inland Post Cards.

1. Official Post Cards impressed with a halfpenny stamp—double or reply Post Cards impressed with a halfpenny stamp on each portion of them—and private Cards impressed at the Office of Inland Revenue with halfpenny stamps—may be transmitted between places in the United Kingdom with letters printed or written upon the back.

2. The address, and the sender's name and address, but nothing else, may be written, printed, or otherwise impressed on the front (or stamped) side. On the reverse side any communication, whether of the nature of a letter or otherwise, may be written or printed. Nothing whatever may be attached except adhesive stamps in payment of additional postage or stamp duty, and a gummed label (not to exceed 2 inches long and  $\frac{3}{4}$  inch wide) bearing the address at which the card is to be delivered; nor may the card be folded, cut, or otherwise altered. If any one of these rules be infringed, the card will be charged 1d. on delivery.

3. Private Cards bearing adhesive halfpenny stamps may also be used as Post Cards. They must be composed of ordinary cardboard, not thicker than the material used for the Official Post Card. The maximum size must correspond as nearly as may be to the size of the Inland Official Card, and the minimum size must not be less than  $3\frac{1}{2}$  by  $2\frac{1}{4}$  inches. They are subject to the rules stated in the preceding paragraph, except as regards cutting and altering.

Private Post Cards must, however, be fully prepaid, or they are treated as letters and charged accordingly.

4. When, owing to an unusually heavy influx of letters, books, &c., the transmission or delivery of the letters would be delayed if the whole mail were dealt with indiscriminately, Post Cards (unless paid for and posted as late letters) may be kept back until the next despatch or delivery.

The conditions on which private cards are embossed with a halfpenny stamp can be ascertained at the Office of Inland Revenue.

It will be seen from the foregoing rules, that there is no legal way of sending a letter, other than a circular letter, through the post for a postage of a halfpenny, except by means of a post card.

A certain number of persons seem to imagine that if envelopes are left unfastened, letters may be enclosed in them and sent for a postage of a halfpenny only. It is desirable, therefore, to point out that the proper postage upon all written letters (which are not written on post cards) is one penny, whether they be open or closed, and that letters posted contrary to this rule are liable to an additional charge of one penny (i.e., double the deficient postage) on delivery.

Large numbers of letters, not being circular letters, are from time to time found in halfpenny wrappers, contrary to the express provisions of the book post; and as the officers of the department are instructed to surcharge all such letters with additional postage, it will save not only trouble to the Post Office but annoyance to the public, if care be taken always to pay letter postage for letters other than circular letters, unless they be written or printed on post cards.

INLAND PATTERN AND SAMPLE POST.

Trade Patterns and Samples of Merchandise may be sent between places in the United Kingdom at the following rates of postage:—

For a packet not more than 4 oz. . . . .	1d.
Above 4 oz. but not more than 6 oz. . . . .	1½d.
Above 6 oz. but not more than 8 oz. . . . .	2d.

No packet must exceed 8 oz. in weight. The limits of size are 12 in. by 8 in. by 4 in. If either of these conditions be infringed the packet will not be forwarded, but will be returned to the sender. A pattern packet posted wholly unpaid will be charged with double postage, and a packet insufficiently paid will be charged with double the deficiency.

The post is intended for the transmission of bona-fide Trade Patterns and Samples of Merchandise, and packets may consist only of such Patterns and Samples, with or without any printed matter which is admissible by Book Post. No article sent for sale, or in execution of an order (however small the quantity), nor otherwise than as a trade sample or pattern, will under any circumstances be admissible; and if any such packet be postaged prepaid at the pattern rate only, it will be charged with double the deficient postage, at the letter-rate, together with a fine of 6d.

Patterns and samples must be sent in wrappers (marked "Pattern Post" or "Sample Post") open at the ends, or in an unfastened envelope, and must be so packed that they may, to the satisfaction of the Postmaster-General or his Officers, be easily withdrawn for examination; but samples of seeds, flour, drugs, and such like articles, which cannot be sent in open covers, may be enclosed in boxes admitting of easy examination, or in bags of linen, or other material, fastened at the neck. Closed bags, even if transparent, will not be allowed. In all cases where the requirements in regard to the mode of enclosure are not complied with, the packet will be charged with double the deficient postage, at the letter-rate.

It is obligatory that the name, address, and trade of the sender be in all cases printed or conspicuously stamped on the outside of the wrapper, or on the label. If this rule be not complied with, the packet will be charged double the deficient postage, at the letter-rate.

When returned to the trader or firm by whom they are originally sent, patterns will be allowed to pass at pattern-rates, if one of the following conditions be complied with:—

a. They may be returned in the original wrapper, the written address being carefully erased, and the words "Returned Patterns" or "Returned to," being prefixed to the printed or stamped address of the trader, in large and legible characters.

b. Or, a reversible wrapper may be used, having the trader's name, address, and trade, and the heading "Returned Patterns" printed or stamped on the reverse side.

c. Or, they may be returned in a fresh wrapper, bearing the printed or stamped address, &c., and heading above described.

A packet which contains any writing which would not be admissible by Book Post will be charged at the letter rate.

No glass bottle, or glass in any form, may be sent; no explosive, liquid, semi-liquid, or greasy matter, nor powders of any kind which may stain or do other damage; nor any living creature.

Patterns of scissors, knives, razors, and other sharp articles, must be so packed and guarded as to completely prevent injury to the other contents of the mail bags, or to the officers employed, but the packets must at the same time admit of easy examination. When these requirements are not complied with, the packet will be stopped.

When necessary for securing the due transmission or delivery of letters, patterns and samples may be kept back for the succeeding despatch or delivery.

INLAND PARCEL POST.

Parcels not exceeding 11 lbs. in weight are accepted at all Post Offices for transmission by the Inland Parcel Post under the following general conditions in regard to weights, dimensions, and rates of postage, viz.:—

The rates of postage for Parcels are—	s.	d.
Not exceeding 1 lb. in weight, . . . . .	0	3
Exceeding 1 lb., and not exceeding 2 lbs., . . . . .	0	4½
“ 2 lbs., . . . . .	3	0
“ 3 “ . . . . .	4	0
“ 4 “ . . . . .	5	0
“ 5 “ . . . . .	6	0
“ 6 “ . . . . .	7	0
“ 7 “ . . . . .	8	0
“ 8 “ . . . . .	9	0
“ 9 “ . . . . .	10	0
“ 10 “ . . . . .	11	0

Dimensions.—The dimensions allowed for an Inland Postal Parcel are—Maximum length, 3 feet 6 inches; maximum length and girth combined, 6 feet.

Examples.—A parcel measuring 3 feet 6 inches in its longest dimensions may measure as much as 2 feet 6 inches in girth, i.e., around its thickest part; or—a shorter parcel may be thicker; e.g. if measuring no more than 3 feet in length, it may measure as much as 3 feet in girth, i.e. around its thickest part.

Delivery.—Parcels for the city (including Crosshill, Hillhead, Parkhead, Partick, Pollokshields, and Springburn) are delivered at 7.0 a.m., 9.0 a.m. (Central Districts only), 10.15 a.m., 12.30 p.m., 2.30 p.m., 4.30 p.m., and 7.30 p.m.

Posting.—Parcels must not be posted in a letter-box, but must be taken into a Post Office and handed over the counter. Care must be taken that every parcel bears a clear address.

Compensation for Loss and Damage of Parcels.—The Postmaster-General will (not in consequence of any legal liability) under certain conditions give compensation for the loss and damage of parcels, as shown hereunder.

If the parcel is not registered, the Postmaster-General will accept liability up to £2 without payment of any fee beyond the postage, if posted under the conditions laid down.

If the parcel is registered the respective limits of compensation are as follows:—For a fee of 2d., £5; 3d., £10; 4d., £15; 5d., £20; 6d., £25; 7d. £30; 8d., £35; 9d., £40; 10d., £45; 11d., £50.

In no case will a larger amount of compensation than £50 be paid, nor will it in any case exceed the value of the article lost or the damage sustained.

A receipt, or certificate of posting, will be given for all registered parcels; but to secure compensation upon a parcel which it is not intended to register, the sender should fill in a certificate of posting, which may be obtained at any Post Office, and present it with the parcel, to an officer of the Post Office, who will sign, date, stamp, and return it.

Claims for compensation should be made within seven days after the date of posting.

Parcels addressed to or sent from the Channel Islands (Jersey, Guernsey, Alderney, Sark, and the adjacent inhabited islets) are received from the public under the same general conditions with regard to weight and size, and at the same rates of postage, as parcels for all other portions of the United Kingdom; but as the Channel Islands, in relation to the customs laws of the United Kingdom, are subject to the same restrictions as foreign countries, such parcels are liable to customs examination at the port of arrival, and the sender is required to make a declaration of contents upon a special form provided for the purpose at the office where the parcel may be posted.

Parcels for the Isle of Man are treated in all respects in the same way as parcels for places in the United Kingdom generally. They are liable to examination by the officers of customs; but the sender is not (as in the case of the Channel Islands) called upon to furnish a declaration of contents.

Re-direction.—Parcels are, when re-directed, liable to an additional charge at the full rate of postage originally payable for every re-direction, unless the original and the corrected address are in a delivery from the same Post Office. In such cases no additional charge is made for re-direction. Parcels, like other postal packets, can only be re-directed by the Department upon receipt of an authority duly signed by the person to whom they are addressed.

A request for the re-direction of letters does not include the re-direction of parcels, for which it is necessary to hand in a separate instruction.

Returned Parcels.—In order to facilitate the return of parcels which cannot be delivered, it is most desirable that the name and address of the sender should appear on the outside of every parcel.

The prohibitions against the sending by post of anything indecent, or explosive, or of any living creature, or of any enclosure bearing an address different from that borne on the cover in which it is enclosed, are the same in the case of parcels as in the case of letters and other postal packets. Liquids, glass, china, crockery, eggs, fruit, fish, meat, butter, &c., which may not be sent by Letter Post, may be sent by Parcel Post, if packed with special care. Liquids or semi-liquids, such as jellies, pickles, paint, varnish, &c., must be put into bottles or cases securely stoppered. The edges or points of sharp instruments like axes, razors, needles, forks, &c., must be carefully protected. Any parcel containing eggs, or fragile, or perishable contents, should be conspicuously marked "Eggs," or "Fragile—with care," or "Perishable." Generally, the packing of a parcel must be such as to protect the parcel itself from damage and other postal packets from being damaged in any way by it. Any parcel not so packed will, if tendered for transmission, be refused, and if discovered in transit, will be detained unless it can be properly packed, and sent forward.

EXCEPTIONAL RATES OF POSTAGE.

(1) Petitions and addresses to the Queen are exempt from postage. Petitions to members of either House of Parliament so addressed are also exempt, provided they do not exceed 2 lbs. in weight, and, if in covers, are in open covers.

(2) Printed Votes or Proceedings of the Imperial Parliament, in open covers, having the words "Parliamentary Proceedings" written or printed thereon, are allowed to exceed the limits of size and weight prescribed for book-packets; and, even if wholly or partly unpaid, they are liable only to the prepaid book rate of  $\frac{1}{2}$ d for every 2 oz.

REGULATIONS AS TO PREPAYMENT, REGISTRATION, &c.

Modes of prepayment.

The prepayment of inland letters, newspapers, book packets, and parcels can only be effected by means of postage stamps—except that at the Chief Office, Glasgow, inland letters, book packets, and parcels may be prepaid in money, provided the amount paid be not less than £1. The letters and book packets must be tied in bundles representing a postage of 5s. each, with the addresses arranged in the same direction. The prepayment, however, cannot be made partly in money and partly with stamps.

Registration.

The fee for registering a letter, newspaper, or book-packet passing through the post between any two places in the United Kingdom is twopenny.

No article addressed to initials or to a fictitious name can be registered, unless it be addressed to the care of a person or firm.

Every article presented for registration must be enclosed in a strong cover, securely fastened.

Registered articles must be prepaid as regards both postage and registration fee; except official letters for Government Offices in London, Dublin, or Edinburgh, which may be registered on prepayment, in stamps, of the registration fee only.

Every article to be registered must be given to an agent of the Post Office, and a receipt obtained for it, and it should on no account be dropped into a letter-box. If, contrary to this rule, an article marked "Registered" be dropped into the letter box it will, if directed to any place in the United Kingdom, be liable to a registration fee of 8d. (less any amount prepaid for registration) instead of the ordinary fee of 2d.

At all Post Offices the latest time for posting registered articles on payment of the ordinary fee is shown on the notice exhibited in the Post Office window. Usually this time is fixed at half an hour before the closing of the Letter Box; but at the Head Office articles bearing a late fee of fourpence, in addition to the ordinary registration fee, may be registered until the letter-box is closed.

When several letters are sent by the same person for registration they should be accompanied with a list (in duplicate) of the addresses; one list to be retained at the Post Office, and the other, when signed, to be returned by the bearer.

The loss of a registered article, as it can be traced through its whole course, is a rare occurrence. Nevertheless, large sums of money or other articles of great value should not be sent through the post, even if registered, as the machinery of the Department is not arranged with a view to such transmissions. If sent unregistered valuable articles are exposed to risk, and offer a temptation which ought not to be afforded.

Inland letters or packets which contain coin, watches, or jewellery, if posted without registration, are treated as registered, and charged on delivery with a registration fee of eightpence in addition to the ordinary postage; and any such letters or packets which cannot be registered in time to be forwarded by the Mail for which they are posted, are detained for the next despatch.

By law the Postmaster General is not responsible for the safe delivery of registered articles, but subject to certain rules, which may be ascertained at any Post Office, he will (voluntarily and as an act of grace) give compensation for the loss and damage of Inland registered letters and other registered postal packets. The amount of compensation varies according to the fee paid, but in no case can it exceed £50.

No town postman is allowed to take a letter to be registered; but rural postmen will take letters for registration on their outward and inward walks, whenever it is practicable for them to do so.

Re-direction.

No charge is made for the re-direction of letters (including registered letters, post cards, book packets, or sample packets), whether re-directed by an officer of the Post Office or by an agent of the addressee after delivery, provided in the latter case that the postal packet is reposted not later than the day (Sundays and public holidays not being counted) after delivery, and that it does not appear to have been opened.

Re-directed postal packets which are reposted later than the day after delivery, or which appear to have been opened, will be liable to charge as freshly posted unpaid packets.

Whenever it may be thought necessary, a receipt may be required from the addressee of a re-directed letter at the second address.

If an inland registered letter, when re-directed, instead of being taken back to the Post Office to be dealt with as a registered letter, is dropped into the letter box as an ordinary letter (the word "registered" not having been erased, or having been erased in pencil only), it becomes liable to the same treatment as any other letter which is marked "registered" and found in the letter box, and must be surcharged with a registration fee of eightpence, minus the value of any stamps already affixed for the registration.

Notices of removal, and applications for letters to be re-directed must, in all cases, be duly signed by the persons to whom the letters are addressed, and in provincial towns they must be sent to the local Postmaster. Printed forms of notice can be obtained at the Head Office on application. A separate notice should be filled up if it is desired that parcels may be re-directed.

A Postmaster is not bound to re-direct letters for a person temporarily leaving his home, and not having a private bag or box, unless the house be left uninhabited.

Collection.

Arrangements are made for the collection by postmen of ordinary letters, &c. (not registered letters or articles intended for transmission by parcel post) from private letter boxes of approved pattern at hotels, business premises, offices, &c.

The charge for this accommodation is as follows:— For one collection daily from a box on the ground floor, £3 a year.

For each daily collection above one an additional £1 a year.

For boxes above or below the ground floor an additional £1 a year in respect of every floor the collector has to ascend or descend to make the collections.

For each additional person or firm beyond one making use of the box, £1 a year.

Pursuant to the terms of section 19 of the Post Office (Protection) Act, 1884, the following notice will be affixed to these boxes, viz:—

"A Postal packet put into this box will not for the purpose of any enactment, law, or contract, whereby the due posting of a Postal packet is evidence of the receipt thereof by the addressee, be deemed to have been duly posted."

Applications in regard to the collections from private posting boxes should be made to the Postmaster.

Delivery.

1. Postmen are prohibited from distributing any letters, newspapers, &c., except such as have passed through a Post Office.

2. All letters, &c., must be delivered as addressed; but by payment of a fee of £1 1s. a year firms or persons can have letters addressed to their offices delivered at their private address, and vice versa, provided that both addresses are served from the same delivery office. By paying 5s. a year any person may obtain his registered letters at the Post Office, even although he does not rent a private box.

3. No person living within an official delivery, unless he rent a private box, can claim to have his letters or parcels delivered at the office window if a delivery by postmen or a despatch by messenger is about to take place; but letters or parcels which arrive by a mail after which there is no immediate delivery by postmen, may be obtained by means of express delivery.

4. Persons who desire at any time to receive their letters, or other postal packets of any kind, including book and sample packets, newspapers, and circulars, in advance of the ordinary delivery, may have them delivered by special messenger on payment of the following fees, viz.:—The full express fees (3d. per mile or part of a mile) as per one packet, and 1d. per every ten, or less number, of additional packets beyond the first. Applications for such special delivery must be signed by the person or firm to which the letters or postal packets in question are addressed. Forms of application may be obtained at any office from which deliveries are made. The application should be addressed to the postmaster of the office from which the letters are ordinarily delivered, and may be delivered by hand or sent through the post prepaid. Care should be taken that the application reaches the head post office on the previous evening, if it is intended to apply to the early delivery in the morning, and, if to other deliveries during the day, an hour at least before the time at which the delivery by postmen commences. The express fees on at least one packet must be prepaid in stamps affixed to the application. All additional fees must be paid to the special messenger on delivery.

5. When letters or parcels directed to a Post Office for persons who reside within a free delivery from such office, but who have no private box, arrive by a mail for which there is a delivery from house to house, a Postmaster may refuse to deliver them at the window, and may send them out by the postmen, except such as are addressed to the military in barracks.

6. No person can have a private box unless he is willing to pay the appointed fee. The fee is at the rate of £3 per annum, payable in advance. Special arrangements are made for locked bags to and from the renters of private boxes and the Post Office.

A RETURNED LETTER OFFICE

Is established in Glasgow, and all undeliverable letters addressed to Glasgow and its sub-offices are disposed of there.

On reaching the Returned Letter Office a letter originating in the United Kingdom is at once opened, and if found to contain the writer's address is returned to him. If it does not contain either the writer's address or an article of value the letter is destroyed. Any letter or packet which on being opened is found to contain value is, for its safety, recorded and returned registered and, unless registered at the time of posting, the registration fee of 2d. is charged to the sender. Letters bearing the sender's name and address impressed or printed on the envelopes are returned unopened.

After being retained for periods varying from one week to one month, foreign and colonial letters are, with few exceptions, returned unopened to the countries from which they were received.

The following regulations govern the disposal of undelivered post cards, newspapers, book packets, (including circulars) under 2 oz. in weight:—(1) Where such undelivered packets bear on the outside the sender's name and address, with a request for their return in case of non-delivery, the packets will be sent back to the sender direct from the office of delivery, and will be delivered on payment of a second postage. (2) Where such undelivered packets bear on the outside no request for their return in case of non-delivery, they will be disposed of at the Head Office of delivery, unless the contents appear to be of value, in which case the packets will be offered to the sender (if known), and delivered to him on payment of a second postage. These regulations do not apply to letters or to sample packets, or to packets sent at the book rate, which are prepaid more than one halfpenny.

EXPRESS DELIVERY OF MESSAGES, LETTERS, AND PARCELS.

Messages, letters, and parcels are delivered under the following services, by special messenger, from the undermentioned offices in the Glasgow district:—Chief Office—George Square; Branch Offices at Anderston, Bridgeton, Candleriggs, Charing Cross, Crosshill, Duke Street, Eglinton Street, Fish Market, Stock Exchange, Govan, Hillhead, Hope Street, Waterloo Street, Kingston, Maryhill, Partick, St. Enoch Square, Sandyford; Town Sub-Offices at Crossmyloch, Crown Street, Garscube Cross, St. Rollox, Ibrox, Springburn, Jordanhill, Mount Florida, Whiteinch, Nithsdale Road, Parkhead, Polmadie, Port-Dundas, Possilpark, Pollokshields; and at the Sub-Offices at which telegraph business is transacted.

Local Service.—Under this Service any Postal Packet (letters, parcels, or any other article sent by ordinary post, except articles of a dangerous or offensive character), will be conveyed the entire distance by Express Messenger for the following fees:—Not exceeding 1 lb., 3d. a mile. When the packet exceeds 1 lb. there is a further charge of 1½d. for every lb. or part of a lb. beyond the first, in addition to the mileage charge. If the sender desires that a special conveyance be used, or if the distance exceeds 2 miles and a public conveyance (by train, omnibus, or tramcar) is not available in both directions, the actual cost of a special conveyance must in all cases be paid in addition to the foregoing charge. Two or more packages may be carried by the same messenger at reduced charges. For particulars apply at any of the offices mentioned.

Special Delivery of Letters, &c., in Advance of the Ordinary Deliveries, at the Request of Addressee.—

Persons or firms who desire at any time to receive their letters, or other postal packets of any kind (including parcels, book and sample packets, newspapers, and circulars), in advance of the ordinary delivery, may have them delivered by special messenger on payment of the following fees, viz.:—The full express fee of 3d a mile as for one packet, and 1d. for every 10, or less number, of additional packets beyond the first. Applications for such special delivery must be signed by the person to whom, or firm to which, the letters or postal packets in question are addressed. Forms of application may be obtained at any Post Office from which letters or parcels are delivered, and also from the more important Town Branch and Sub-Post Offices.

Supplementary Service—Express after First Stage.—Express Packets may be handed in at any Post Office in Glasgow, but as those posted at Town Sub-Offices which are not Express Delivery Offices, take the ordinary course of post from the office at which they are handed in until they reach the Head Office, there may be some delay before the packet reaches the hands of the Express Messenger, and the sender of a packet intended for local delivery is recommended, where there is an Express Delivery Office within easy reach, to take his packet to that office.

Reply or Further Service.—On the delivery of an Express Packet, the delivering messenger may take a reply or perform a further Express Delivery Service. The Express Fee must be prepaid either by the sender of the first service or by the sender of the reply or further service. The messenger is allowed to wait for the reply ten minutes free of charge, but after that time 2d. is charged for every  $\frac{1}{4}$  hour or part of  $\frac{1}{4}$  hour during which he is required to wait. If the return or further service is to an address on the messenger's homeward route, or within half-a-mile of the office from which he started on the original service, half only of the mileage rate is charged, but if the packet exceeds 1 lb. in weight, the full weight charge must be paid in addition to the half mileage rate.

Hours of Business.—Head Post Office, 6 a.m. to 10 p.m.; Branch Offices, 8 a.m. to 7 p.m.; Sub-Offices, 8 a.m. to 7 p.m. No business is transacted on Sundays, Good Friday, or Christmas Day.

Express Delivery after Transmission by Ordinary Post.—Under this Service letters and parcels may be forwarded by mail in the regular course of post to any Express Delivery Office, and, on arrival, be sent out for delivery by special messenger. The Express Fee, in addition to the full ordinary postage, is at the rate of 3d. per mile from the office of delivery; the fee is in no case less than 3d., and this and the postage must be prepaid by means of postage stamps affixed to the letter or parcel. If a special conveyance be used or if the distance exceeds 2 miles and a public conveyance is not available in both directions, the actual cost must be paid in addition to the express fee and postage. When the distance exceeds 2 miles, at least one-half of the amount payable in respect of Fee and Charge for special conveyance must be prepaid, and the deficiency (if any) will be demanded from the Addressee; if this be not done, the letter cannot be delivered by Special Messenger, but will be treated as an Ordinary Mail Letter. Hours of Delivery—Head Post Office, 4.30 a.m. to 12 midnight on week days. To callers, 6 a.m. to 10 p.m. Sunday, 6 a.m. to 9 a.m., 4.45 p.m. to 9 p.m.

CONVEYANCE OF SINGLE POST LETTERS BY RAILWAY.

Single Inland Post Letters, not exceeding one ounce in weight, are now, under an agreement with the Postmaster General, accepted by certain Railway Companies to be sent by next available train or steamship, either to be called for at the station of address, or to be transferred there to the nearest post office letter box for delivery by postman. In the former case, the letter should be addressed to the Parcel Office of the station to be called for; and in the latter, the words "To be posted on arrival" should be written below the name of the station. Such letters must be taken to a passenger station and tendered at the Parcel Booking Office, or, if that office be closed, to the Passenger Booking Office. The total cost of transmission of every letter is 3d., of which 1d. is paid by means of an ordinary postage stamp affixed to the cover, the remaining 2d. being handed in cash to the railway servant. A letter which contains, or appears to contain, a watch, coin, or jewellery, or any article or thing which, if sent by post, would require to be registered, or any article prohibited from transmission by Inland Letter Post cannot be sent as a railway letter. If the case requires it, a railway letter will be passed on from Company to Company in succession to the station of address, provided the latter is on the line of a Company party to the arrangement.

Such letters may be handed in at any Express Delivery Office for immediate conveyance to the Railway Station, and, if desired, the letters, after transmission by train, can, on reaching the Office of Delivery in the ordinary course of post, be sent at once to destination by Special Messenger, or, if desired, they can be delivered by Special Messenger direct from the Station. In the latter case the sender must telegraph to the Postmaster of the nearest Postal Telegraph Office for the Station of Address requesting him to send a Special Messenger to meet the train. The letter must be marked "Express Delivery" and with a perpendicular line, and the postage and express fees prepaid thereon in stamps by the sender.

INTERNATIONAL EXPRESS SERVICE.

The Express Service is in force between this country and certain foreign countries. For particulars apply at any Post Office.

At Post Offices which are not Money Order Offices, sub-postmasters are required to keep ½d. and 1d. stamps, post cards, and registered letter envelopes only; but they are bound, on application, to procure postage stamps of other values, embossed postage envelopes, and newspaper wrappers.

Inland Bill Stamps of the respective values of 1d., 2d., 3d., 6d., 9d., and 1s., are for sale at the Chief Office, Branches, &c.

Dog, Gun, and private Brewers' Licenses are issued at all Money Order Offices.

Licenses for Gamekeepers, Game, Carriage and Civil Service Fee Stamps, Patent, Design, and Trade Mark Stamps and Forms, can be obtained at the Head Office.

Every rural messenger is authorized to sell penny postage stamps and registered letter envelopes, or (if he have no stamps in his possession) he must receive the postage in money, and on his arrival at the Post Office affix stamps carefully to the letters.

Payment of postage cannot be made by means of imperfect or defaced postage stamps, or of embossed or impressed stamps cut out from the envelopes, cards, wrappers, or telegraph message forms (even although the stamps have not been before used or sent by post).

Applications for allowance on spoilt or unused postage stamps, embossed envelopes, post cards, or newspaper wrappers, which have not passed through the post, should be made to the Distributor of Stamps, Inland Revenue. Such applications, however, can only be entertained if the stamps or other articles have been spoilt or become useless within the period of six months preceding the date of application. In the case of envelopes, cards, or wrappers, the applications must be accompanied by these articles intact, as no allowance can be granted on the embossed, or impressed stamps if cut therefrom.

Postage Stamps purchased from the Public.

All postmasters in the United Kingdom at whose offices money order business is transacted, are permitted, though not compelled, to purchase postage stamps from the public (provided the stamps be not soiled or otherwise damaged), at a charge of 2½ per cent.; the charge, however, never being less than one halfpenny. Under this arrangement the payments are as follows:—

	The full price minus
For stamps not exceeding 1s. 8d. in value,	½d.
Above 1s. 8d., and not exceeding 3s. 4d.,	1d.
“ 3s. 4d., “ “ 5s. -	1½d.
“ 5s., “ “ 6s. 8d.,	2d.
“ 6s. 8d., “ “ 8s. 4d.,	2½d.

and so on.

To prevent the temptation to steal stamps attached to letters, which might be afforded by facilities for selling them, single stamps cannot be purchased. They must in all cases be presented in strips of not less than two.

In consequence of representations made to the Post Office by various firms, that there is reason to believe that their postage stamps were purloined by persons in their employ, the Department has recommended that the initials of firms, &c., be perforated through the stamps by means of a machine devised for the purpose, and Postmasters have been instructed not to purchase such stamps. The perforation of the stamps on post cards, newspaper wrappers, and embossed envelopes with initials is also not objected to.

Paper and cardboard taken by the public to the Inland Revenue Office can be impressed with postage stamps under conditions which may be ascertained on application at that office.

Articles not allowed to be sent by Post.

1. No indecent or obscene print, painting, photograph, engraving, book or card, or any article having thereon, or on the cover thereof, any words, marks, or designs of an indecent, obscene, or grossly offensive character can be sent by post, nor can any explosive, dangerous, noxious, or deleterious substance, nor any filth, nor any sharp instrument not properly protected, nor any living creature, nor anything likely to injure the contents of the mails or any officer of the Post Office. Liquids, glass, china, crockery, eggs, fruit, fish, meat, butter, &c., may not be sent except by Parcel Post.

2. No postal packet may contain another packet, whether of the same or of a different description, addressed to a different person at a different address, unless a separate postage is paid for each packet.

MISCELLANEOUS REGULATIONS AND SUGGESTIONS.

1. The Post Office is not liable, by law, for any loss or inconvenience which may arise from the non-delivery, mis-sending, or mis-delivery of any letter, book, or other postal packet; but liability for actual loss or damage is accepted on certain conditions in the case of parcels and registered packets.

2. Postal packets which are likely to suffer from great pressure should be placed in strong covers.

3. No information can be given respecting letters or any other postal packets except to the persons to whom they are addressed; and in no other way is official information of a private character allowed to be made public. A Postmaster may, however, give an address if he has no reason to believe that the person whose address it is would disapprove of his doing so.

4. Provision having been made, by means of the Post Office Guide and the Glasgow Local Guide, to supply full and authentic information on all postal matters, the public should abstain, as much as possible, from applying for such information to the officers of the department. For any error in a reply to a verbal application the Department does not hold itself responsible.

5. Postmasters are not allowed to return any letter or other packet to the writer or sender, or to any one else, or to delay forwarding it to its destination, according to the address, even though a request to such effect be written thereon.

6. Postmasters are not bound to give change, nor are they authorized to demand change; and when money is paid at a Post Office, whether as change or otherwise, no question as to its right amount, goodness, or weight can be entertained after it has been removed from the counter.

7. Postmasters are not bound to weigh any letters or other packets except parcels for the public, but they may do so if their duty be not thereby impeded.

8. If any postal packet be forwarded under cover to any Postmaster, with a request that he will re-post it at his office, the postal packet, on being re-posted, will be endorsed with the words “posted at _____, under cover to the Postmaster of _____.”

9. Every address should be legible and complete, and the last word in it should be the name of the Post Town, except when the Post Town is but little known, or when there are two Post Towns of the same name, or when the name of the town is identical with or very like the name of some foreign town or country. In such cases the name of the County should be added. Thus, the last part of the address of a letter to Newport in Monmouthshire should be—

“Newport,

Decorations and devices (in other words advertisements) are only allowed on the outside of envelopes passing through the post when they cover no more than the left-hand half, leaving the right-hand half, the place for the postage stamp and address, quite clear.

10. When a letter is sent to a place where there is only a Sub-Office, the name of the Head Office should be given, unless the office is a Railway Sub-Office, in which case the name of the County should be added.

11. In the case of letters or other postal packets for places abroad, the name of the country as well as the town should be given in full, and should be the last word in the address.

12. Letters for well-known firms and persons in Glasgow are sometimes addressed “Glasgow” only; but this practice often causes delay in their delivery. Letters for strangers or for persons whose address is not known at the Chief Office, simply addressed “Glasgow” (and not “Post Office,” or “Poste Restante, Glasgow,”) are not delivered from the Poste Restante, but are sent to the Returned Letter Office.

13. A letter addressed to a Post Office to be called for is retained one month; and if not called for by the end of that time, it is sent to the Returned Letter Office to be sent back to the writer. But if the letter be addressed to a Post Office at a seaport town for a person on board a ship expected to arrive at that port, it is kept two months.

14. Letters or other postal packets addressed to initials or to fictitious names at Post Offices are not taken in, but are at once sent to the Returned Letter Office.

15. All letters addressed to club houses, hotels, and other places where letters are received to be called for, should be returned to the Post Office as soon as it has become evident that they will not be called for.

16. Every letter should contain the full address of the writer, in order to ensure its return if undelivered.

17. To facilitate the delivery of letters, a letter-box should be affixed to every house-door.

18. Circulars, before being posted, should be tied in bundles with all the addresses in one direction. Correspondence posted early in the day not only obtains in many cases the advantage of an earlier delivery, but frequently avoids the risk of delay from irregularity in the working of the trains.

19. Any person who, on receiving a surcharged letter, has reason to think that it has been wrongly taxed, should take it, before it has been opened, to the Post Office to be weighed, and if it then appear that it does not turn the scale, should have its exact weight certified in writing. This will in most cases be sufficient evidence that the letter has been erroneously charged; though sometimes, owing to the paper being damp when it is posted, a packet weighs more than when it is delivered; and it is the weight at the time of posting that determines the charge.

20. When complaint is made of a letter or other postal packet being lost, mis-sent, or delayed, information, as precise as possible, regarding all the facts of the case should be furnished, together with any documents that may throw light upon the matter. The day and hour at which the letter, &c., was posted, as well as the office at which and the person by whom this was done, should always be stated; and when possible, the cover or wrapper in an entire state should be sent, in order that the place of delay may be ascertained by an examination of the stamps.

21. Neither money nor any other article of considerable value ought to be sent through the post, except by means of a money or postal order or in a registered letter. Any person who sends money or jewellery in an unregistered letter, not only runs a risk of losing his property, but exposes to temptation every one through whose hands his letter passes.

22. Whenever Bank Notes are sent by post, even in registered letters, they should be cut in halves, and the second halves should not be posted till it has been ascertained that the first halves have been received; and further, in order to afford the means of identification, a memorandum should always be made of the number of each bank note.

23. Except where the Surveyor may deem a longer interval necessary, late letters,* &c., are received till within five minutes of the despatch of the mail; although no office is kept open merely for this purpose after 10 o'clock at night.

24. No late letters, &c. (except Government letters) are forwarded by the mail preparing for despatch unless prepaid, and that by stamps, including both the ordinary postage and the late letter fee. The late fee payable upon Post Cards is the same as upon letters.

25. Letter boxes for the receipt of late letters bearing the extra stamp of  $\frac{1}{2}$ d. are affixed to all Mail trains in which travelling post offices or sorting carriages are run.

26. Sunday.—During the time the office is open on Sunday the public are allowed to purchase postage stamps and to have letters registered (viz.) from eight to nine in the morning; but no Money Order, Savings Bank, Insurance, Annuity, Postal Order, or Parcel Post business is transacted on Sunday.

27. At no provincial town in England or Ireland is there more than one delivery on Sunday, Christmas Day, or Good Friday; nor in Scotland on Sunday or the Spring and Autumn holidays.

Penalties for sending Letters otherwise than through the Post.

28. Any person conveying otherwise than by the Post a letter (which by law includes a packet) not exempted from the exclusive privilege of the Postmaster-General, or who performs, otherwise than by post, any services incidental to conveying letters from place to place, whether by receiving, or by taking up, or by collecting, or by ordering, or by despatching, or by carrying or re-carrying, or by delivering a letter not exempted from such privilege incurs, by law, a penalty of £5 for every letter, and £100 for every week the practice is continued. A person sending, or causing to be sent otherwise than by post, a letter not exempted from such privilege, is also liable to similar penalties.

29. Exceptions.—The exclusive privilege is confined strictly to letters, and does not therefore extend * “Late Letters” are such as are posted after the ordinary time, and cannot be sent forward by the mail then in preparation, unless extra payment be made.

to newspapers, books, or money; any of which may be legally conveyed by other means. The following kinds of letters also need not be sent through the post:—

1st. Letters sent by a private friend to be delivered by such friend to the person to whom they shall be directed.

2nd. Letters sent by a messenger on purpose, concerning the private affairs of the sender or receiver thereof; commissions or returns thereof, and affidavits and writs, process or proceedings or returns thereof, issuing out of a court of justice.

3rd. Letters sent out of the United Kingdom by a private vessel (not being a packet boat).

4th. Letters of merchants, owners of vessels of merchandise, or of the cargo or loading therein, sent by such vessels of merchandise, or by any person employed by such owners for the carriage of such letters, according to their respective directions, and delivered to the respective persons to whom they shall be directed, without paying or receiving reward or profit for the same in anywise.

FOREIGN AND COLONIAL MAILS.Foreign and Colonial Letters.*

Letters posted unpaid, or insufficiently paid for, to any country where prepayment is compulsory, are returned to the writers.

Unpaid letters to or from places abroad are charged double the prepaid rate, and those partially prepaid are charged with double the deficiency.

Routes.—Letters not specially directed to go by a particular route are forwarded by the first mail despatched.

No letter for a Colony or Foreign Country may exceed 2 feet in length or 1 foot in width or depth.

The addresses of letters for Russia should be very plainly written; the name of the town, and of the province in which it is situated, should also be added in English, French, or German.

Foreign and Colonial Book and Newspaper Post.

Articles which may be sent to places abroad under the Book Post Regulations consist of two classes, as follows:—

1st. Commercial Papers, under which are comprised all papers or documents written or drawn wholly or partly by hand (except letters or communications in the nature of letters, or other papers or documents having the character of an actual and personal correspondence), documents of legal procedure, Deeds drawn up by public functionaries, copies of or extracts from Deeds under private seal (and whether written or printed on stamped or unstamped paper), Way Bills, Bills of Lading, Invoices, and other documents of a mercantile character, documents of Insurance and other public Companies, all kinds of manuscript Music, the manuscript of Books and other literary works, and other papers of a similar description.

2nd. Printed Papers, including newspapers, periodical works, books (stitched or bound), pamphlets, sheets of music (printed), visiting cards, address cards, proofs of printing (with or without the manuscript relating thereto), engravings, photographs, pictures, drawings, papers impressed for the use of the blind, or cardboard drawing models stamped in relief, plans, maps, catalogues, prospectuses, announcements, and notices of various kinds, whether printed, engraved, lithographed, or autographed and in general all impressions or copies obtained upon paper, parchment, or card-board by means of printing, lithography, autography, or any other mechanical process easy to recognise, except the copying press and the typewriter, and anything usually attached or appurtenant to any of the before-mentioned articles in the way of binding, mounting, or otherwise, and anything convenient for their safe transmission by post which shall be contained in the same packet; also printed, engraved, or lithographed circulars, notwithstanding that such circulars may be letters or communications in the nature of a letter. On printed visiting cards the address or title of the sender, or conventional initials such as "p.p.c." may be written; and on printed circulars manuscript corrections and insertions may be made as to names of commercial travellers, dates of their journey, dates of departure of ships, names of persons invited to meetings, and the place, date, and object of the meetings. Printers' proofs may be corrected in manuscript, as may also figures in prices current, stock and share lists, &c. Books, papers, music, photographs, and engravings may have a dedication inscribed on them, and the invoice relating to them may be enclosed. Stamps for prepayment, whether obliterated or not, and all printed articles constituting the sign of monetary value, are, however, excluded from transmission by Book Post to countries of the Postal Union.

The two classes are subject to the same rates of postage, except that the minimum charge for a packet of commercial papers, however small the weight, is 2½d. in every case. If there be any mixture of the two in the same packet the whole packet is treated as commercial papers.

Commercial papers and printed papers may be posted either without a cover (in which case it must not be fastened, whether by means of gum, wafer, sealing wax, postage stamp, or otherwise), or in an ordinary letter envelope left wholly unfastened, or in a cover open at both ends, so as to admit of the contents being easily withdrawn for examination. For the greater security of the contents, however, the packets may be tied at the ends with string, but the string must be easy to unfasten.

Dimensions.—The limits of size for a packet addressed to countries of the Postal Union are 18 inches in length and one foot in width or depth, unless they are in the form of a roll, in which case the limits of size will be 30 inches in length and 4 inches in diameter, and for packets addressed to other places abroad 24 inches in length and 12 inches in width or depth. Limits of weight are, 4 lbs. to countries of the Postal Union, and 5 lbs. for other countries.

Rates of Postage.—The rates of postage, which must be prepaid, on packets to places abroad, are given at page 14.

All books and printed matter imported into the United States through the post, however small the value, are subject to a duty of 25 per cent. of that value. The undermentioned articles are still exempt from Customs duties:—1st. Newspapers and periodicals already exempt from duty; 2nd. Photographs and printed papers, other than books, received in the United States in such small quantities as to suggest that they are intended for personal use and not for sale.

Books and periodicals addressed to the Republic of Colombia are liable to Customs duties unless intended for the personal use of the addressee. Books for Uruguay, whether bound or sewn, are liable to Customs duties, except when the whole value of those sent to any one addressee is less than 100 francs (£4).

Bound books sent to Portugal by post are subject to Customs duty. The wrappers should bear an indication of the nature of the contents, and also the words—"A soumettre à la douane." Unless these conditions are complied with the books will be liable, on delivery, to a fine in addition to the duty.

Although books sent to Italy, whether bound or unbound, are in strictness liable to Customs duties, they are admitted by book post provided they are not sent in considerable numbers to any one person.

Foreign and Colonial Pattern and Sample Post.

1. The Pattern and Sample Post to foreign countries and the colonies generally is restricted to bonâ fide trade patterns or samples of merchandise. Packets containing goods for sale, or in execution of an order (however small the quantity may be), or any articles sent by one private individual to another which are not actually patterns or samples, cannot be forwarded by Pattern Post.

2. No article liable to custom duties can be sent as a sample or pattern.

3. The rates of postage, which must be prepaid, will be found at page 14.

4. Patterns or samples, when practicable, must be sent in covers open at the ends, and in such a manner as to be easy of examination.* But samples of seeds, drugs, and such like articles, which cannot be sent in covers of this kind, may be posted enclosed in boxes, or in bags of linen or other material, fastened in such a manner that they may be readily opened.

5. There must be no writing or printing upon or in any sample packet for non-Union countries, except the address of the person for whom it is intended, the address of the sender, a trade mark or number, the price of the articles, the weight or size, and the quantity to be disposed of, or such as may be necessary to indicate the place of origin or the nature of the merchandise. A sample packet for a country in the Postal Union may contain, besides these particulars, any Printed Papers; and, if the rate applicable to Commercial Papers be paid, it may also contain Commercial Papers.

6. Samples of saleable value must not be sent to any foreign country, or to any of the British Possessions which are comprised in the Postal Union. Samples of eider down, raw or thread silk, woollen or goats' hair thread, vanilla, or isinglass, are considered to fall under this rule if they weigh more than three ounces.

7. Such articles as scissors, knives, razors, forks, steel pens, nails, keys, watch machinery, metal tubing, pieces of metal or ore, provided that they be packed and guarded in so secure a manner as to afford complete protection to the contents of the mail bags and to the officers of the Post Office, while at the same time they may be easily examined, may be sent as samples to places abroad. Liquids, glass, anything of a greasy nature, explosives, indigo, and powders of all kinds are absolutely prohibited.

8. The limit of weight is not the same to all countries. For particulars, see page 14.

9. A packet of patterns or samples sent to any place comprised in the Postal Union must not exceed 12 inches in length, 8 in width, or 4 in depth. If, however, the packet be in the form of a roll the limit of size will be 12 inches in length and 6 inches in diameter. The size of a packet for a non-Union country or colony is limited to 24 inches in length and 12 inches in width or depth.

Foreign Post Cards.

Single and Reply Post Cards are transmissible to all parts of the world, except St. Helena, to which island single cards only can be sent. Single cards are issued with impressed stamps of 1d., and Reply Cards bearing stamps of the value of 1d. on each half.

Inland Post Cards are also transmissible abroad if the additional postage required is supplied by means of postage stamps affixed to the cards.

Nothing must appear on the front of a Post Card but the stamps required for postage, postal directions

(such as "Registered," "Acknowledgment of Delivery," &c.), the name and address of the recipient in writing or on a gummed label not exceeding in size 2 inches by  $\frac{3}{4}$  inch, and the name and address of the sender indicated in writing, or by means of a stamp, or any typographical process. Nothing whatever may be attached to a post card except adhesive postage stamps, or an address label as described above. Nor may the card be folded, cut, or otherwise altered.

Post cards not in accordance with the regulations are treated as insufficiently paid letters.

Post cards of one country are not available as such if posted in another country. If so posted they are charged as unpaid letters.

Private Post Cards.

Private Post Cards bearing adhesive stamps of the value of One Penny, and Private Reply Post Cards with Penny adhesive stamps on each half, may also be sent as Post Cards to places abroad. They must be of the same size and substance as the Official Cards (Inland or Foreign). Such Cards, single and double alike, must have the words "Post Card" printed on them without the Royal Arms. The reply halves must bear in print the words "Post Card—Great Britain and Ireland," and "Reply."

Letters for Non-Commissioned Officers, Soldiers, and Seamen in Her Majesty's Service.

1. Non-commissioned officers, schoolmasters, schoolmistresses, private soldiers, seamen, writers in Her Majesty's Navy, whether serving on sea or land, in a British Possession or Foreign Country, the Cape Mounted Rifles, and enrolled pensioners in Canada, can send and receive prepaid letters not exceeding the weight of half an ounce for a postage of 1d.; but if any such letters have to pass through a foreign country they are subject, in addition, to the foreign postage, whatever that may be. Thus the postage to the undermentioned countries (including the British charge of one penny) is as follows:—

To or from—	s.	d.
Australia,*Ceylon,*HongKong,Straits Settlements, India, &c., via Brindisi )	0	2
Mauritius, by French Packet	0	2½
Chili, Peru, or any other place in the South Pacific, via Southampton and Panama )	0	2

When sent by private ship, such letters are in addition liable to the Captain's gratuity.

2. The person claiming the privilege must at the time be actually employed in the service of Her Majesty, and must not be either a commissioned officer or warrant officer in the army, or assistant engineer, gunner, boatswain, or carpenter in the navy; the privilege not extending to these officers.

3. The name of the soldier or seaman, with his class or description, must appear in the direction; and the officer having the command must sign his name, and specify the ship or regiment, corps or detachment, to which the soldier or seaman belongs; the name of the ship or regiment being entered in full. The foregoing particulars must be given in one of the following forms:—

* In order to secure the return of Pattern Packets which cannot be delivered, the names and addresses of the senders should be printed or written outside; thus, "From _____ of _____."

* The postage to these countries, if posted in time to leave London on Thursday morning, is 1d. only.

(Here the direction to be finished.)

4. If the letter be posted in the United Kingdom for a place abroad, unpaid or insufficiently paid, or if the class or description of the soldier or seaman be not written in the address, it will be detained and returned to the writer for payment of the postage.

Letters, &c., by Private Ships.

Book Packets and Packets of Patterns may be sent by Private Ship for the same postage as by Mail Packets.

Letters intended to be sent by a private ship must be addressed "By Private Ship," and if by a particular vessel the name of the ship must be added.

Registration.

1. The fee chargeable for registration to places abroad will be found in the column headed "Registration fee" in the Table of Foreign and Colonial postage at page 14. To some countries, as shown in that Table, an article can be registered only to the port of arrival; it being left, in those cases, to the postal authorities of the country to which that port belongs to continue the registration or not as they may think proper. To a few countries, as also shown in the Table, there is no arrangement whatever for registration.

2. Registration is applicable equally to letters, post-cards, newspapers, book-packets, and patterns addressed to places abroad, except in the cases specially mentioned at page 14.

3. The sender of a registered article addressed to any Foreign Country or British Colony in the Postal Union may obtain an acknowledgment of its due receipt by the addressee on paying a fee of 2½d., as well as the registration fee, in advance at the time of registration. The name and address of the sender must in this case be left at the post office at which the article is registered.

4. No article addressed to initials or to a fictitious name can be registered. The prohibition, however, does not extend to articles addressed to the care of a person or firm.

5. Every article presented for registration must be enclosed in a strong envelope, securely fastened.

6. It is prohibited to send to a country of the Postal Union any registered article marked on the outside with the declared value of the contents; and Postmasters must therefore refuse to receive articles which are so marked.

7. Registered articles must be prepaid as regards both postage and registration fee.

8. Every article to be registered must be given to an agent of the Post Office, and a receipt obtained for it; and it should on no account be dropped into a letter box.

9. As it is prohibited to send coin, jewellery, or precious articles through the post to those countries of the Postal Union, the names of which are marked with an asterisk at page 20, no letters or packets addressed to those countries and containing any such articles can be accepted for registration.

10. Letters or packets containing coin for any of the British Colonies not in the Postal Union can be registered, and if they are posted without being registered, they are treated in the same manner as inland letters under similar circumstances.

11. The several Postal Administrations of the countries belonging to the Postal Union undertake to pay an indemnity of fifty francs in the event of its being proved to their satisfaction that a registered letter itself has been lost whilst in their custody, but no question of compensation is entertained by them for, or in respect of, the loss of the enclosure of any such letter.

Prohibited articles besides those mentioned at page 12.—The transmission by letter post of gold, silver, precious stones, jewellery, &c., is prohibited to all countries of the Postal Union marked thus * at page 20.

In Luxemburg the registration of such packets is compulsory, and everything of value, except coin or bullion, is liable to duty.

In the undermentioned Colonies, viz.—Ceylon, Falkland Islands, Gambia, Gibraltar, Hong Kong, Labuan, Lagos, Malta, Montserrat, Newfoundland, St. Vincent, Sierra Leone, and Straits Settlements, articles of value are transmissible, and, with the exception of jewellery addressed to Ceylon, Newfoundland, and St. Vincent, are exempt from customs duty. Their transmission is also permitted in Bermuda, Cyprus, and Jamaica; but they are liable to customs duty, with the exception of gold and specie in Cyprus; gold, silver, and diamonds in Grenada; and diamonds in Jamaica.

In France engravings, prints, drawings, and chromolithographs are liable to Customs duty, and cannot be sent by post to that country in quantities sufficiently large to have a saleable value, but small quantities can be sent as bonâ fide specimens.

In the Dutch East Indies articles of value are admissible, except wrought gold and silver, but the packets containing them must be registered.

Special prohibitions in Cape of Good Hope, Italy, United States of America, and Servia.—Anything relating to foreign lotteries.

In New Zealand.—Cuttings of grape vines.

In Roumania.—Bound books.

In the Cape of Good Hope and Queensland.—Jewellery and precious articles, if dutiable, are liable to detention until the duty is paid.

In Spain.—Jewellery is dutiable, and liable to confiscation.

In Victoria.—Tobacco and cuttings of grape vines, also jewellery, which is dutiable and liable to confiscation.

Russia.—Printed matter in the Russian language is prohibited; and even such trifling articles as photographs and Christmas cards are liable to duty, though a single photograph may be sent to Russia by post. All letters or packets containing prohibited or dutiable articles of any kind, however small the value, are confiscated in that country.

In Belgium.—Bronze, copper, and nickel coins.

In Liberia.—Gold and silver articles, except coins.

Letters for Passengers on Board Mail Packets.

1. Letters for passengers on board the packets for America calling at Queenstown, the packets for Canada calling at Londonderry, the packets for the Cape, &c., and the Royal Mail Company's packets for Brazil, &c., calling at Lisbon, the Peninsular and Oriental packets from Brindisi with the mails for Egypt, India, Australia, China, &c., and the Orient packets from Naples with the mails for Australia, may be posted in any part of the United Kingdom up to the time at which ordinary registered letters to go by the same packets are received. They must be registered, the postage and registration fee must be fully prepaid, and they must be addressed to the care of the Commander of the packet.

2. The letters should be addressed thus: "Mr. —, on board the mail packet —, for —, at Queenstown, Londonderry, Lisbon, Brindisi, or Naples, care of the Commander of the packet."

Re-direction.

1. Letters addressed to this country from places abroad and re-directed here either to a fresh address in this country or to another country, and also Inland Letters re-directed to an address abroad, are sent forward without any charge for re-direction; but, if not prepaid in the first instance a postage which will have sufficed for their transmission from the first to the second address they are charged the deficient postage.

2. Letters re-directed after delivery at the first address, must be reposted not later than the day (Sundays and public holidays not being counted) after delivery. Any which may appear to have been opened will be liable to charge as freshly posted unpaid letters. Whenever thought necessary a receipt may be required from the addressee of a re-directed letter at the second address.

3. All re-directed parcels are chargeable with fresh postage, except where the original and corrected addresses are both within a delivery from the same Post Office.

4. All registered letters or packets on being re-directed must be taken back to the Post Office to be dealt with as registered, and must not be dropped into a letter box as ordinary letters or packets.

5. Letters for commissioned officers in the army or navy on actual service are exempt from any charge for re-direction. The regulations respecting letters for non-commissioned officers and private soldiers and seamen will be found at page 22.

6. Letters, &c., returned to the senders that they may rectify or complete the address are not, when re-posted, treated as re-directed, but as liable to fresh postage.

Algeria, Argentine Republic, Chili, Cochin China, Corsica, Dutch East Indies, Greece, Italy, Madagascar, Mexico, Portugal (via France), Senegal, Spain, Tripoli, Tunis, Turkey, and Uruguay.—Greatest length, 2 feet; length and girth combined, 4 feet.

Weight.—No parcel must exceed 7 lbs. in weight, except where otherwise stated. Parcels for Spain and Portugal via France, 6½ lbs.

Customs Declaration.—Parcels are liable to Customs regulations, and the sender of each parcel is required to make a Customs declaration furnishing—upon a special form or forms provided for the purpose, which can be obtained at any post office—an accurate statement of the nature and value of the contents, the date of posting, and other particulars. The net weight of the various articles contained in a parcel should, if possible, be stated, and any other particulars which would facilitate the assessment of Customs duty. Some foreign administrations require more than one copy of the Customs declaration form to be made out. The forms should, when possible, be filled up in both English and French. Parcels for foreign countries must in addition be accompanied by a despatch note, which is supplied at any post office, and must be filled up by the sender.

Customs Duty.—All parcels are liable to be opened for Customs examination, and their contents are subject to Customs duty in the country or colony of destination. Such duty cannot be prepaid, but is in each case collected from the addressee on delivery. In most foreign countries and British colonies the articles which are not subject to Customs duty on importation are comparatively few. The post office can give no information as to the Customs tariff or procedure of particular countries, nor does it accept any responsibility for loss, delay, or charges arising from the Customs regulations to which the contents of parcels are liable. In addition to Customs duty, a charge of 6d. per parcel for stamp duty, clearance, &c., is levied on all dutiable parcels entering the Cape of Good Hope and Natal. This charge is increased to 1s. in the case of parcels from Rhodesia, the Orange Free State, Bechuanaland, Mashonaland, and Transvaal. In Mexico the charge is 5 cents for a parcel not exceeding 1 lb., and 1 cent for every 4 oz. in the case of a parcel exceeding 1 lb.

Letters Enclosed in Parcels.—No letter, or communication of the nature of a letter, may be enclosed in a parcel for any foreign country or for the colonies of Bechuanaland, British Central Africa, Cape of Good Hope, Fiji, Jamaica, Mashonaland, Malta (via Brindisi), Mauritius, New Hebrides, Natal, New South Wales, New Zealand, Queensland, Seychelles, South Australia, Straits Settlements, Tasmania, Tangier, Trinidad, Victoria, or Western Australia. The enclosure in a parcel addressed to any of the other British colonies or possessions of a letter bearing the same address as the parcel is not prohibited.

Compensation for Loss or Damage.—Compensation to an amount not exceeding in some cases 20s. and in other cases 12s. is given for loss or damage of parcels addressed to foreign countries and to certain colonies. For particulars apply at any post office.

Insurance of Foreign Parcels.—Parcels for certain countries and British colonies and dependencies may be insured up to the value of £50, some of which are as follows:—Aden, Antigua, Ascension, Bahamas, Barbadoes, British Guiana, British North Borneo (as far as Sandakan), Ceylon, Cyprus, Dominica, Falkland Islands, Gambia, Gibraltar, Grenada, Hong Kong, India, Labuan, Lagos, Mombasa, Montserrat Nevis, Newfoundland, Norway, Niger Coast Protectorate, St. Helena, St. Kitts, St. Lucia, St. Vincent, Straits Settlements (Malacca, Penang, Province of Wellesley, and Singapore only), Tobago, Tortola, Trinidad, Zanzibar.

Parcels for Austria-Hungary, Belgium, Cameroons, Denmark, Egypt (via Gibraltar), Germany, Sweden, and Switzerland, may be insured up to the value of £50; those for Holland, Italy (via Belgium), and Montenegro up to £40: and those for Algeria, Beyrout, Constantinople, Egypt (via France), Finland, France, Italy (via France), Roumania, Servia, Smyrna, and Switzerland (via France) up to £20. The scale of fees and respective limits of compensation are—

Compulsory Registration.—When an uninsured parcel in course of transit from those countries (foreign or colonial) is discovered to contain coin, watches, jewellery, or any article of gold or silver, it is compulsorily registered, and a fee of 8d. is charged on delivery. Such parcels posted uninsured are, as a rule, returned to the sender.

Packing.—More careful and substantial packing is necessary for all foreign and colonial parcels than for inland parcels, owing to the much greater distance over which, as a rule, the former have to be conveyed, the very different conditions of transit, and the influence of climate. This is a consideration which must necessarily be taken into account in dealing with claims for compensation. Further, a parcel for any foreign country must be so sealed by the sender that the parcel cannot be opened without the seals being broken.

Prohibited Articles.—As in the case of the inland parcel post, certain dangerous and perishable articles and contraband articles must not be sent by means of the foreign and colonial parcel post. Liquids may be accepted if securely packed in proper cases.

General.—Where not repugnant to the foregoing rules, the general regulations of the inland parcel post will apply.

In addition to the countries, &c., given on page 26, parcels may be sent to certain other places, some of which are as follows (full particulars can be obtained at any post office):—Accra, Aden, Adrianople, Annam, Ascension, Azores, *Austrian Agencies in Turkey, Bahamas, Bahrain, Bandar Abbas, Batavia, Bathurst (Gambia), Berberice, Bermuda, Beyrout, Borneo, Bosnia, British Bechnavaland, British Central Africa, British East Africa, British Honduras, Busralh, Cameroons, Candia or Crete, Cayenne, Chili, Cochin China, Congo Free State, Congo (French), Corsica, Costa Rica, Demerara, Diego Suarez, Farøe Islands, Falkland Islands, Fiji, Finland, *French Agencies in Turkey, Gaboon, Gambia, *Gold Coast Colony, *Greece, Guadalupe, Guadur, Herzegovina, Iceland, Jamma, Jask, *Japan, Java, Jerusalem, Lagos (Turkey), Lamu, Liberia, Lioga, Little Popo, Madagascar, Martinique, *Madagascar, Mashonaland, Mauritius, Mayotte, *Mexico, Mombasa, Montenegro, Morocco, Muscate, Mytilene, New Caledonia, New Hebrides, Norfolk Island, North Borneo, Nossi Bé, Novi Bazar, Obock, Niger Coast Protectorate, Padang (Sumatra), Persia, Philippopolis, Quittah, Reunion, Rhodes, Roumania, St. Croix, St. John, St. Helena, St. Thomas, Salonica, Salvador, Samarang, Samoa, Sarawak, Sardinia, Senegal, Seychelles, Siam, Sicily, Smyrna, Sverbeya, Tabiti, Tangiers, Tonga, Tonquin, Trebisond, Tristan D'Acunha, Turk's Island, *Uruguay, Zululand.

MONEY ORDERS.

1. When applying for Money Orders, whether Inland, Foreign, or Colonial, the public should use the prepared printed "Application Forms," which are supplied gratuitously at all Money Order Offices.

2. Commission.—The commission on Inland Money Orders is:—

For sums not exceeding £1, - - -	2d.
“ above £1 and not exceeding £2, - - -	3d.
“ “ 2 “ “ “ “ “ “	4d.
“ “ 4 “ “ “ “ “ “	7, 5d.
“ “ 7 “ “ “ “ “ “	10, 6d.

3. No order is allowed to contain a fractional part of a penny.

4. Particulars Required.—The applicant must furnish in full the surname and at least the initial of one Christian name, both of the remitter and the payee, and the remitter's address. In the case of Foreign Orders the full address of the payee must be given; and if the order be payable to a native in British India the tribe or caste, and the father's name, must also be furnished.

Exceptions.—1st. The remitter of an Inland Order may direct, at the time of issue, that the order be crossed like a cheque, thus & Co., and thus be made payable only through a Bank. In that case he may give or withhold the name of the payee. The designation of the Bank need not be furnished. Note.—This provision is not applicable to orders drawn on foreign countries.

2nd. If the remitter or payee be a peer or a bishop, his ordinary title is sufficient.

3rd. The usual designation of a firm, as well as the ordinary title of any company, corporation, or society, is sufficient either as remitter or payee.

5. The holder of an Inland Money Order may direct, by crossing it, that the order be paid through a bank, even though its payment was not originally so restricted.

6. When application is made for a Money Order payable in London, or at any other town where there is more than one Money Order Office, the remitter should say at which of such offices he wishes it to be paid, otherwise the order can be cashed only at the Head Office.

7. An order once issued cannot be cancelled; and should repayment or transfer to a different office be required, the remitter or payee must apply to the paying Postmaster according to the directions in paragraph 15 of these regulations.

8. Money Orders do not require a receipt stamp.

9. When an Order is paid through a bank it is sufficient that it be receipted, without regard to any discrepancy between the signature and the name in the advice, and that it be crossed with the name of the bank, and presented by some person known to be in the employment of that bank.

10. Although at the end of twelve months from that in which it was issued, a Money Order, if still unpaid, becomes legally void, nevertheless, when a good reason can be given for the delay in presenting it, an application for payment, subject to a certain deduction, is entertained.

11. No application can be entertained for compensation for alleged injury from the non-payment of a Money Order at the expected time.

12. After once paying a Money Order, by whomsoever presented, the Office is not liable to any further claim.

13. To guard against fraud the remitter is recommended:—

1st. When he is well known to the payee, to sign the letter enclosing the order with his initials only.

2nd. When this is not the case, either to make the order payable ten days after date, or to register the letter enclosing it, or to make the order payable through a bank by crossing it like an ordinary cheque.

3rd. When it is not considered expedient to adopt any of these courses, to send the remitter's name (without a knowledge of which payment cannot be obtained) in a separate letter from that containing the Money Order; although this latter precaution is much less effective than either of the others.

14. Payment of an order cannot be made on the same day as that on which the order was issued.

15. In case of the miscarriage or loss of an inland Money Order in transmission through the post, a duplicate will be granted, free of charge, on a written application (with the necessary particulars) being forwarded to the Controller of the Money Order Office in England, Scotland, or Ireland, according to the country in which the original order was issued. Should an Order be lost by the remitter or payee an additional commission (which should be forwarded in postage stamps together with the application for a duplicate order) will be charged. This additional commission, for duplicate of an order not exceeding £5, will be 1s.; above £5 and not exceeding £10, 2s. If it be desired to stop payment of an inland order, a notice must be sent to the office where the order is payable, and a second commission in postage stamps must be enclosed. If alteration in the name of the payee or remitter of an inland Money Order should be required, application, accompanied by the payment of a second commission, must be made by the remitter to the Postmaster of the office at which the order was issued. Should transfer of payment of an inland order from one office to another in the United Kingdom, or repayment of the amount of an order, be required, an application inclosing the order must be made to the Postmaster at whose office the order is payable; who will transmit in exchange a new order payable at the place desired, but for a less sum than the original order by the amount of the second commission charged for the reissue. Proper printed forms for making application in all these cases may be obtained at any Money Order Office. Whenever, on complaint being made, it is found that the necessity for an application, entailing the payment of a fresh commission, is attributable to the Post Office, the charge will be remitted to the applicant and imposed on the officer in fault.

16. A Postmaster is required to give information how to apply for a duplicate order, &c., and must furnish the prescribed form of application. If payment of an order be refused, in consequence of the reply to the question respecting the remitter, or the signature on the order not corresponding with the entries on the advice, the applicant for payment should communicate with the remitter, and request him to apply personally to the issuing Postmaster.

17. No Postman or other Servant of the Post Office is bound to procure a Money Order for any person, or to obtain payment for one; but such services are not forbidden.

18. Money Orders for amounts not exceeding £50 are issued, free of charge, in favour of "The Receiver-General of Inland Revenue," when required for the remittance of Income Tax, Inhabited House Duty, Land Tax, or Excise Duties, or Legacy and Succession Duties. The official notice to pay must, in each case, be presented for inspection when the order is applied for.

Telegraph Money Orders (Inland).

19. Money may be transmitted by Telegraph Money Order between all Post Offices in the United Kingdom authorised to transact Telegraph and Money Order business, with the exception that at those offices which forward but do not deliver telegrams, Telegraph Money Orders can be issued, but cannot be paid.

a. The commission is—	s. d.
For sums not exceeding £1, - - -	0 4
“ above £1 and not exceeding £2, - - -	0 6
“ “ 2 “ “ - - -	4, - 0 8
“ “ 4 “ “ - - -	7, - 0 10
“ “ 7 “ “ - - -	10 - 1 0

In addition to the commission, a charge is made at the ordinary inland rate for the official telegram authorising payment at the office of payment and for the repetition thereof, the minimum being 9d. The telegraph charges only cover the cost of transmitting the official telegram of advice to the Postmaster of the office of payment and its repetition. Any telegraphic communication which the remitter may wish to despatch to the payee must be paid for at the ordinary inland rate, the minimum being 6d.

b. No Telegraph Money Order can be issued for a greater amount than £10.

c. Any person expecting a remittance by telegraph must furnish satisfactory evidence that he himself is the person entitled to receive the money. He, or someone on his behalf, must attend at the office to obtain payment.

d. Should repayment of a Telegraph Money Order be required, the remitter must make application to the Controller, Money Order Office, General Post Office, London, or to the Accountant in Edinburgh or Dublin, according to whether the order be remitted from an office in England and Wales, Scotland, or Ireland. He must enclose the official receipt with his application. A new order will then be issued, less the ordinary commission, payable at any Money Order Office named for the purpose. Should transfer of payment from one office to another be required by either remitter or payee, he must make application to the Controller, Money Order Office, General Post Office, London, or to the Accountant in Edinburgh or Dublin, as the case may be, furnishing particulars of the Order, and stating the name of the office at which payment is desired.

e. In other respects Telegraph Money Orders are subject to the regulations which govern the transmission of ordinary money orders.

20. Money Orders are issued in the United Kingdom on the following foreign countries, British agencies, possessions, and colonies, at the rates of commission shown below:—Foreign Countries—Austria, Belgium, Bulgaria, Congo Free State (Banana, Boma, and Ma'adi), Chili, Denmark (with Farøe Islands), Danish West Indies, Dutch East Indies, East Africa—Dares Salaam, Bagamoyo, Lindi, Kilroa, Pangani, Saadam, Tanga (through Germany)—Egypt, France, with Algeria, German Empire, Hawaii (Sandwich Islands), Holland, Hungary, Iceland, Italy, with offices on the Red Sea and at Tripoli, Japan, Luxemburg, New Guinea (German Protectorate of), North Borneo (Sandakan), Norway, Orange Free State, Portugal (including Madeira and the Azores), Roumania, Siam, Sweden, Switzerland, Transvaal, The Cameroons (through Germany), Togo—Klein Pofu, Lome (through Germany),—Tunis, United States, Foreign Towns—Adrianople, Beyrout, Constantinople, Panama, Salonica, Smyrna, and Tangier (Morocco). In the case of Austria, Belgium, Bulgaria, Chili, Congo Free State, Denmark, Danish West Indies, East Africa, Iceland, Egypt, Germany and Heligoland, German possessions in East and West Africa, Holland, Hungary, Dutch East Indies, Japan, Luxemburg, New Guinea, Norway, Portugal, Roumania, Siam, Sweden, Switzerland, Tunis, India, and the Ottoman towns of Adrianople, Beyrout, and Salonica, the original Order, issued in this country, should be retained by the remitter, a new Order in the currency of the country of payment being issued by the Chief Office of that country, and sent to the payee.

In the case of France, &c., Hawaii, Italy, &c., British Bechuanaland, North Borneo, the Orange Free State, Transvaal, Sarawak, the United States, Canada, Constantinople, Smyrna, Panama, and Tangier, and the British possessions and colonies generally, with the exception of India, the Order issued in this country should be sent to the payee by the remitter.

In like manner, the Orders issued in Austria, Bulgaria, Belgium, Congo Free State, Denmark, Danish West Indies, Iceland, Egypt, Germany and Heligoland, German possessions in East and West Africa, Holland, Hungary, Dutch East Indies, Italy, Luxemburg, New Guinea, Norway, Portugal, Roumania, Siam, Sweden, Switzerland, Tunis, India, and the Ottoman towns of Adrianople, Beyrout, and Salonica, are of no value in this country, and should, therefore, be retained by the remitters.

22. The issue of a duplicate Order, or the stoppage of payment of an Order issued by a Colony or For-sign Country on the United Kingdom, will be made on application to the Controller of the Chief Money Order Office, London, provided an additional commission be enclosed as follows:—1. For duplicates of Orders, not exceeding £5, 1s.; above £5, and not exceeding £10, 2s. 2. For stoppage of payment, an additional commission at the ordinary Inland Rates. Postmasters in the United Kingdom have power to transfer to other Offices in the United Kingdom payment of colonial and foreign orders originally drawn on their own offices.

23. Orders issued in the United Kingdom on Austria, Bulgaria, Belgium, Congo Free State, Denmark, Danish W. Indies, Hungary, Italy, France, Japan, Luxemburg, Orange Free State, Portugal, Roumania, Sarawak, Siam, Sweden, Tunis, United States, Switzerland, Holland, the Dutch East Indian Possessions, Norway, Egypt, Hawaii, the Ottoman towns of Adrianople, Beyrout, and Salonica, and the British possessions and colonies, are payable for twelve months after the month of issue. Orders issued in the United Kingdom on Chili are payable for six months only after the month of issue. Orders issued in the United Kingdom on the German Empire and India, are subject to the regulations which govern the payment of money orders in those countries.

24. Orders for the British Colonies and other possessions abroad, excepting Canada and India, are drawn in sterling, but the regulations provide that in those colonies where the local currency is other than sterling, payments for Money Orders may be made to the nearest equivalent in the legal currency of the place in which the Orders are payable.

25. As the advices of Orders drawn on the British Colonies, &c., have to circulate through the London Office, and also the Chief Office of the paying country, such Orders should be taken out in sufficient time to allow of the despatch of the relative Advices, so that the presentation of the Orders and the arrival of the Advices may be simultaneous.

POSTAL ORDERS.

1. Postal Orders, for certain fixed sums from 1s. up to £1, are now issued to the public at all Money Order Offices in the United Kingdom, at the British Post-office at Constantinople, and in Malta, Gibraltar, India, Straits Settlements, Hong Kong, and Newfoundland.

Such Postal Orders are paid at all Money Order Offices in the United Kingdom, and at the British Post Office, Constantinople. Payment is also made in Malta and Gibraltar provided the Orders were issued in the United Kingdom or at the British Post Office, Constantinople.

2. The person to whom a Postal Order is issued must, before parting with it, fill in the name of the person to whom the amount is to be paid, and may fill in the name of the Money Order Office at which the amount is to be paid. The person so named must, before payment can be made, sign the receipt at the foot of the Order, and must also fill in the name of the Money Order Office, if that has not been already done.

3. The following are the amounts for which Postal Orders are issued, together with the Poundage payable in respect of each Order:—

Amount of Order.		Poundage.	Amount of Order.		Poundage.
s. d.	d.		s. d.	d.
1	0	$\frac{1}{2}$	4	6	1
1	6	$\frac{1}{2}$	5	0	1
2	0	1	7	6	1
2	6	1	10	0	1
3	0	1	10	6	1
3	6	1	15	0	1 $\frac{1}{2}$
4	0	1	20	0	1 $\frac{1}{2}$

Broken amounts, not being fractions of a penny, may be made up by the use of British Postage Stamps not exceeding fivepence in value affixed to the face of any one Postal Order. Perforated stamps cannot be accepted for this purpose.

4. Every person to whom a Postal Order is issued should keep a record of the number, date, and name of office of issue to facilitate enquiry if the order should be lost.

5. In case of the miscarriage or loss of any Postal Order, unless proof can be given to the satisfaction of the Postmaster-General that the name of the payee was inserted in such Order before the holder parted with the same, and unless the number of such Order can be furnished, the Postmaster-General cannot undertake to trace such Order with a view to accounting for the miscarriage or loss thereof.

6. If a Postal Order be crossed, payment will only be made through a Banker, and if the name of a Banker is added, payment will only be made through that Banker.

7. No Postal Order will be paid, even though presented for payment by a Banker, unless the name of the payee be inserted in the body of the Order.

8. The holder of a Postal Order may, in writing, on the face thereof, direct that payment be deferred for any period not exceeding 10 days; but in such case the name of some Money Order Office at which the Order shall be paid must be inserted in the body. Payment of the Order will then not be made until the period specified by the holder has elapsed.

9. A Postal Order presented by, or through, a Banker for payment will not (in the absence of an express arrangement between such Banker and the Postmaster-General to the contrary) be paid until after such Order has been examined at the Chief Office in London.

10. After a Postal Order has once been paid, to whomsoever it is paid, the Postmaster-General will not be liable for any further claim.

11. If any erasure or alteration be made, or if the Order is cut, defaced, or mutilated, payment may be refused.

12. The regulations under which Postal Orders are issued allow the Postmaster to delay or refuse the payment of an Order, but he must at once report his reasons for so doing to the Postmaster-General. He may also require the person presenting the Order to sign his name on the Order before its payment, although the receipt has been already signed.

13. After the expiration of three months from the last day of the month of issue, a Postal Order will be payable only on payment of a Commission equal to the amount of the original poundage, with the addition (if more than three months have elapsed since the said expiration) of the amount of the original poundage for every further period of three months which has so elapsed, and for every portion of any such period of three months over and above every complete period.

14. The Commission thus paid must be affixed in Postage Stamps to the back of the Order.

15. No postman, or other servant of the Post Office, is bound to procure a Postal Order for any person, or to obtain payment for one; but such services are not forbidden.

16. After the closing of the Money Order Office, Postal Orders may be obtained at the stamp counter, Head Office, George Square, until 10 p.m. on week days.

POST OFFICE SAVINGS BANKS.

1. Post Office Savings Banks are established at all Money Order Offices in the United Kingdom, and are open for the receipt of deposits on week days during the hours appointed for the sale of stamps. Every such Office is also open for the payment of withdrawals on week days during certain hours, which are mentioned in a notice exhibited at the Office.

2. At these Offices ordinary deposits of one shilling, or any number of shillings, will be received, subject to the limits of £50 in one year ending 31st December, and £200 in all, exclusive of interest. Deposits will also be received for immediate investment in Government Stock, and in connection with Government Insurance and Annuities.

Any person desirous of saving one shilling by means of penny contributions, for deposit in the Post Office Savings Bank, may do so by purchasing with every penny so saved a penny postage stamp, and affixing it to a form to be obtained at any Post Office. Instructions as to this form are printed thereon.

3. Interest.—Interest at the rate of £2 10s. per cent. per annum (which is at the rate of 6d. in the pound for each year, or at the rate of one halfpenny on each complete pound for each calendar month), is allowed until the sum due to a depositor amounts to £200, when interest ceases. The calculation is made from the first day of the calendar month next following the day on which a complete pound has been deposited or completed, up to the last day of the calendar month preceding the day on which a warrant for repayment is issued. The interest due to each depositor is added to the principal due to him on the 31st December in each year.

4. Transfers of Deposits.—A person may transfer his deposits from a Trustee Savings Bank to the Post Office Savings Bank, or vice versa, by obtaining a certificate of transfer, which will be accepted as a deposit of the amount therein set forth. Forms of application for certificates of transfer to a Trustee Savings Bank can be obtained at any Post Office Savings Bank.

5. Withdrawal of Deposits.—Any depositor wishing to withdraw the whole or part of the sum deposited by him, must make application for the same to the General Post Office in London, in a form which may be obtained at any Post Office Savings Bank.

6. Repayments.—Repayments will be made only to the depositor in person, or to the bearer of an order under his hand, signed in the presence of either the minister of the parish in which the depositor resides, of a justice of the peace, or in case of sickness, of the medical attendant.

7. Withdrawals by Telegraph.—A depositor who wishes to obtain immediate payment of any amount not exceeding £10 standing to his credit, can apply at any savings bank office at which payment by telegraph is made, when upon production of the deposit book showing that the sum required is standing to his credit, and on his filling up the usual notice of withdrawal and paying the cost of the telegram to the chief office and of the reply, the Postmaster will ascertain by telegraph whether the amount applied for on the notice may be paid. Not more than £10 can be paid to a depositor in one day under this arrangement. Withdrawals of not more than £20 may also be obtained by return of post on notice being similarly sent by telegraph to the chief office, London.

INVESTMENTS AND SALES OF GOVERNMENT STOCK UNDER THE SAVINGS BANKS ACT, 1880.

1. A depositor in the Post Office Savings Bank who desires to invest in Government Stock, must send to the Controller of the Savings Bank Department, General Post Office, London, together with his deposit book, an application signed by him on a form to be obtained at any Post Office Savings Bank. Such investments can be made in Consolidated, 2<sup>3</sup>/<sub>4</sub>, 2<sup>3</sup>/<sub>4</sub> (1905), 2<sup>1</sup>/<sub>2</sub>, or in Local Loans 3 per Cent. Stock.

2. The minimum amount of Stock which may be purchased or sold is 1s., and not more than £200 Stock can be credited to an account in any year ending the 31st December, or £500.

3. The commission chargeable on investment, including the receipt of dividends, and on the sale of Stock, is as follows:—

GOVERNMENT INSURANCES AND ANNUITIES.

Immediate or deferred annuities of not less than £1, or more than £100, may be purchased through the Post Office on the life of any person over 5 years of age.

Any person between 14 and 65 years of age may insure his or her life for not less than £5 or more than £100. The lives of children between 8 and 14 years of age may be insured for £5.

If the amount of the Annuity or Insurance purchased is less than £100, further Annuities and Insurances may be purchased from time to time until the total amount of annuities depending on the life is £100, and the total sum insured is £100.

The persons whose lives are insured or to whom annuities are granted by the Postmaster-General, have direct Government security for the payment of the money at the proper time.

Proposals for the insurance of lives and the purchase of annuities; and forms of proposal, with full instructions for filling up and delivering the same, as well as every other necessary information, may be obtained on application at the Post Office, Glasgow.

POST OFFICE TELEGRAPHS.

1. The charge for telegrams throughout the United Kingdom is 6d. for the first 12 words, and  $\frac{1}{2}$ d. for every additional word. Addresses are charged for.

2. Postage stamps are used for the payment of telegrams, and the public are required to affix them to the message forms just as they are required to affix them to letters.

3. Receipts for the charges on telegrams can be obtained at a cost of 2d. each.

4. The telegram forms are of two kinds, namely, the "A 1" form, embossed with a stamp, and the "A" form (given gratis), with no stamp. The "A 1" forms may be purchased singly. They may also be had in books of 20 forms, interleaved, and with a sheet of carbonic paper, price 10s. 2d. per book.

5. When the terminal office, i.e., the office nearest to the address, is a Head Post Office, the amount paid for transmission covers the cost of delivery within one mile, or within the town postal delivery of that office when the delivery extends more than a mile. But when it is not a Head Post Office, the message is delivered free within one mile only. In Glasgow and other large towns the district covered by the maximum number of postal deliveries is regarded as the town postal delivery.

6. When the address is beyond the free delivery, portage is charged at the rate of 6d. per mile, or part thereof, provided the whole distance does not exceed three miles; but the charge is calculated from the boundary of the district within which no portage is levied.

7. If the addressee resides at a greater distance than three miles from the terminal office, portage is charged for delivery by mounted messenger at the rate of 1s. per mile, except in Ireland, where the charge usually is 8d. per mile. The charge is reckoned from the Office door.

8. The sender is responsible for the portage; and when the address is not within the free delivery, he must, if practicable, state the distance and pay the portage in advance. When the exact distance is not known, a deposit must be paid. Should the sender undercalculate the charge the deficiency is charged on delivery. If the sender pays too much, the excess is refunded.

9. If the sender requires his telegram to be forwarded by post or by train from the terminal office, he must write the words "by post" or "by train" (these words being charged for) at the end of the address, and in the latter case he must pay the cost or deposit 1s. if the exact cost is not known.

10. If the telegram is to be posted to a place abroad, he must write "post———" (which will be charged for) at the end of the address; and must prepay the postage. Thus a telegram of 25 words, to be posted from London to Calcutta, via Brindisi, should be marked "post London" and be prepaid 1s. 3d., viz., 1s. 0 $\frac{1}{2}$ d. for telegraphing, and 2 $\frac{1}{2}$ d. for postage.

11. A deposit for boat hire is required on every telegram addressed to a ship (unless the ship be lying along side a wharf, jetty, or pier). Any surplus is refunded.

12. An embossed stamp which has been removed from a spoiled and unused "A 1" form will be accepted in payment of a telegram; but mutilated or defaced stamps, or embossed stamps cut out from envelopes, will not.

13. The sender should furnish his address to enable the Department to communicate with him, if necessary. When it is not to be telegraphed, it should be written on the back of the form.

14. Telegrams can be repeated by being signalled back from office to office. No copy of the telegram is, in such case, given to the sender. The charge for repetition is one half the ordinary tariff; fractions of  $\frac{1}{2}$ d. being reckoned as  $\frac{1}{2}$ d.

15. Telegrams containing mercantile quotations or figures, and telegrams written in cypher, or according to a preconcerted code, should always be repeated.

16. If the receiver of a telegram doubts its accuracy he may have it repeated by depositing half the amount paid for its transmission to him. A fraction of a halfpenny is reckoned as a halfpenny. Should he require only a portion of the message to be repeated, a payment must be made at the half rate sufficient to cover the number of words embraced in the repetition. The money will be refunded if it should turn out that the telegram has been inaccurately transmitted. The minimum charge for repetition (even of a single word) is threepence.

17. The cost of a reply not exceeding forty-eight words may be prepaid; and a reply form will then be delivered to the addressee, who will be at liberty to send his reply, from any Telegraph Office, at any time within two months. If the form be not used, its value will be refunded to the sender of the original telegram on his applying within two months to the secretary, General Post Office, and on production of the form. A reply form, however, need not necessarily be used for the reply, but may be used to prepay any message.

18. Telegrams re-directed to a second address are liable, if any additional service is performed, to an additional charge of 6d. if the two addresses are within the same town (each London Postal district being considered, for this purpose, a separate town), but if the addresses are in different towns the full inland rate is charged for re-direction. In addition to the amount chargeable for re-direction and portage on each re-transmitted telegram, a fee of £1 1s. per annum is charged for the registration of special instructions as to the re-direction of telegrams after office hours. Removals are registered, when this is specially requested, for a period of one month; and no charge is made for the registration; but in this case also the telegrams are subject to the usual charges for re-direction and portage.

19. Copies of a telegram directed to more than one person in the same free delivery are delivered at a charge of twopence per copy, in addition to a halfpenny for each word in the address of the copy. Each London Postal District is regarded, for this purpose, as forming a separate delivery.

20. Persons not wishing to send to a Telegraph Office may post a telegram in an envelope addressed "Telegram, Immediate," in a wall or pillar box, or at a Town Sub-Office or Sub-Post Office. Telegrams so posted are sent on by the next collection to the Telegraph Office to which the letters included in such collection are taken, and are thence transmitted and delivered free of extra charge, provided the proper amounts for transmission and for postage (if any) have been prepaid. The time of arrival at the Telegraph Office is regarded as the time of receipt from the public. Telegrams may also be posted not enclosed in envelopes, and when so posted they will be treated in the same manner. Telegrams posted insufficiently prepaid are forwarded, and the deficiency is charged to the addressee, but unpaid telegrams are not forwarded.

21. Telegrams in plain language in any European tongue or in Latin are charged for according to the number of words; but all words not forming part of any European language or of Latin are charged for at the rate of five letters to a word.

22. No combination of words is counted as one, with the exception of those which are ordinarily written as one, or coupled by hyphens, as "mother-in-law," "non-delivery," "almshouses," "forty-seven."

23. Certain exceptional names, such as O'Neil, MacDonald, De la Rue, are charged for as single words. So, too, are names with the prefix "St.," as St. Pancras, but double names, like Smith-Payne, are counted as two words.

24. The abbreviations of words, "can't," "won't," "don't," and "shan't," are counted as single words, but there is a great risk of error.

25. Figures are counted at the rate of five figures to a word. For example, "38563" counts as one word. Fractions are counted according to the number of figures employed, one figure being added for the mark of division—thus, " $\frac{1}{2}$ " counts as one word, " $2\frac{3}{4}$ " as one, " $109\frac{7}{8}$ " as two. In groups of figures denoting time, a stop is counted as a figure, thus, 12-35 counts as one word. In groups of figures a stop or oblique stroke is always counted as a figure. The symbols o/o, a/c, b/l, c/o, are each counted as one word. Ordinal numbers are charged in the same way as cardinal, with the addition of one word for the affix st, nd, rd, or th.

26. Where a group of figures is followed or preceded by a letter, the letter is counted as a word: thus 104a or a104 counts as two words.

27. Initial letters are each counted as one word; but exceptionally the initials of the London Postal Districts are counted as one word for each group. Thus: "S.W." is counted as one word.

28. All names of Head Offices and Sub-Offices (not in towns) in the United Kingdom are counted as one word each, and so also are the names of those railway stations (not in towns) at which telegraph business is transacted on behalf of the Post Office. For example, "Newcastle-on-Tyne," "Malvern Wells," and "North Thoresby" are counted as one word each. All names of Town Sub-Offices and Branch Offices, names of Foreign Places, and all other names, are counted according to the number of words of which they are composed. For example, "Hanging Ditch" and "Park Lane" are each counted as two words.

29. When the sender desires words to be underlined, or placed in a parenthesis, or within inverted commas, two extra words are charged for. When the sender of a telegram desires to have any instructions, such as "private," "confidential," "to be opened at once," or the like, written on the outside of the envelope of the message, he must write the necessary instructions immediately after the address of the receiver. They will be charged for as part of the message.

30. Any person may register an abbreviated or arbitrary address on payment of a registration fee of £1 1s. a year, dating from the day of registration. The address must consist of not less than two words, one of which is to be the town or place of delivery. Telegrams intended to be delivered to the care of a person who has registered an abbreviated address must have "care of" or "c/o" written before the abbreviated address, thus: "Smith, care of Hercules, London."

N.B.—The registration of abbreviated addresses is not recommended. It would be much better if in all cases full addresses were used.

31. The addresses of telegrams should be sufficiently full to enable the Department to effect delivery without difficulty, and without reference to directories. The number of the house and the name of the street in which the addressee resides should be given if possible. It should also be noted that an address ordinarily used for letters is not necessarily correct for telegrams, and the sender of a telegram should be careful to give the name of the Telegraph Office from which the telegram will be delivered, unless such Office is a Branch or Town Sub-Office in a town, when the name of the town will generally be sufficient.

32. When telegrams are addressed to a Telegraph Office to be called for, they are kept for two clear days; and if no application be made for them within that time, they are sent to the Chief Office, London.

33. Telegrams for the re-direction of letters or parcels are accepted at the ordinary rate of charge. Such telegrams must be signed by the persons to whom the letters, &c., are addressed, otherwise no attention can be paid to them.

34. Telegrams which are indecently or obscenely worded, or which appear to contain libellous or grossly offensive matter, will not be transmitted.

35. The Department is not liable for losses incurred through the incorrect transmission, delay, or non-delivery of telegrams.

The Weather, and Forecasts of the Weather.

The latest information as to the weather in any district of the United Kingdom, and forecasts of the weather one day in advance in any district not bordering on the Atlantic, can be obtained by telegraph from the Meteorological Office on payment of a fee of 1s. in addition to the cost of a telegram and reply.

The Meteorological Office is open between the hours of 11 a.m. and 8 p.m. on week days, and 6 p.m. and 8 p.m. on Sundays, and its telegraphic address is "Weather, London."

Signalling Stations.

Signalling stations have been established by the Post Office, by Lloyd's, and by others, from time to time, at various points round the coast of the United Kingdom; and telegrams to and from vessels passing such stations may be signalled when the vessels are passing.

The Post Office signal station is at Hurst Castle.

The charge for signalling, or for reporting the passing of a ship, at Hurst Castle signal station is 10*d.*, and must be prepaid.

The charges made by Lloyd's and others for similar services, or for giving other information, vary in amount. They are collected on the delivery of the telegram containing the report.

In all cases the Post Office charge for the transmission of the telegram (including the reply, if any) must be prepaid at the ordinary rate for inland telegrams.

PRIVATE WIRES.

1. The Department undertakes to construct and afterwards maintain, upon the payment of an annual rental, a line of private wire between the place of business or residence of a firm or private individual and a Postal Telegraph Office, or between two or more places of business or residences. The advantage of having a private wire led into a Postal Telegraph Office is that the renter is placed in direct communication with the public wires to all parts of the kingdom or abroad, messages being received from and sent to the Postal Telegraph Office by wire instead of by hand. The renter has also the privilege of sending messages over his private wire to be forwarded from the Post Office as ordinary letters, or of calling a messenger for the express delivery of a letter or parcel.

2. The Department also undertakes to supply Greenwich mean time by electric current at either ten or one o'clock.

3. All applications or communications in regard to private wires or time signals should be addressed to "The Secretary, General Post Office, London, E.C."

FOREIGN TELEGRAMS.

(Regulations founded upon the International Telegraph Convention.)

1. Foreign telegrams are of two kinds, telegrams in plain language and telegrams in secret language. Those in plain language are composed of words, figures, and letters conveying an intelligible meaning. Those in secret language are divided into two classes: (1) preconcerted language or code, (2) cypher.

2. Telegrams in preconcerted language, or code, are composed of the words, the context of which has no intelligible meaning. Proper names are not allowed in the text of such telegrams, except in their natural sense. Words of more than ten letters are not allowed in either the European or the Extra-European system. Only English, French, German, Italian, Spanish, Portuguese, Dutch, and Latin may be employed; but words of any or all of these languages are allowed in the same telegram.

3. Cypher telegrams are those containing groups of figures having a secret meaning. Telegrams consisting of groups of letters are not accepted, but groups of letters denoting trade marks are allowed in the midst of plain or preconcerted language, and are then charged for as figures. See par. 8.

4. Special forms are provided for Foreign Telegrams: the  $A_N^N$  form for telegrams to be transmitted by North American Cables, and the  $A_M^S$  form for other Foreign and Colonial Telegrams. Telegrams written on forms supplied by the Cable Companies are also accepted at Post Offices.

Books containing twenty-five forms, each bearing an embossed 10*d.* stamp, interleaved, can be obtained, price £1 1*s.* each.

5. The address of the receiver must be paid for, and must not consist of less than the name of the person and the name of the town. Example—Hercules, Bombay.

6. The address of the sender is charged for if transmitted; it in any case must be written at the foot of the form.

7. In telegrams written in plain language, intended for places within the European system, the length allowed for a word is 15 letters. In telegrams for places within the Extra-European system the maximum length of a word is 10 letters. Any additional letters are charged for at the rate of 15 or 10 letters respectively to the word.

8. Subject to this limit, ordinary compound words and names written without break are counted as single words. If joined by a hyphen, or separated by an apostrophe, they are counted as so many separate words. Compound numbers written in words and without break are also counted as single words subject to the same limit as to the number of letters. The name of the office, county, province, and of the country of destination in the addresses of telegrams are charged for as one word each, whatever their length. Words incorrectly spelled, so as to reduce the number of letters below the maximum, or incorrectly joined together, contrary to the usage of the language, are inadmissible.

If the sender of a telegram from a place abroad improperly joins together English words for the purpose of reducing the charge, the amount undercharged is collected from the addressee.

9. Every separate letter or figure is charged for as a word. As to groups, in European telegrams five figures or letters are counted as a word, larger groups being counted at the rate of five to a word, plus one word for any excess. In Extra-European telegrams, groups are counted at the rate of three to a word, plus one word for any excess. See par. 3. Bars of divisions, decimal points, and stops used in the formation of numbers are counted as figures. Letters added to figures to form ordinal numbers are counted as figures.

10. In telegrams for large towns the exact address should be given, and should be in French, or in the language of the country to which they are to be sent. When it can be given, the profession or calling of the addressee should be stated, otherwise the telegram will be forwarded only at the risk of the sender. If there is more than one place of the same name, the name of the country or state in which the place is situated should be added to the address.

11. Corrections, alterations, or additions to the address can only be made by means of a fresh telegram, which must be paid for at the ordinary rate.

12. If the sender desires to prepay a reply of 10 words, he must insert before the address of the receiver "R P," which is charged for as one word; but if he desires a reply of more or less than 10 words, he must insert "R P —," which are charged for as two words. A less sum than 10*d.* cannot be accepted in prepayment of a reply. More than 30 words cannot be prepaid. A voucher for the reply is issued by the office of delivery, and the person receiving it is entitled to use it within six weeks from the date of its issue in payment, or partial payment, as the case may be, of a telegram to any destination. If the addressee do not use the reply form of an Extra-European telegram, or if the charge for the reply is less than the amount prepaid, the cost of the reply or the balance, as the case may be, will be returned to the sender on application to the post office within three months. The addressee must, in the former case, return the form with his application. In the case of European telegrams, no allowance is made when the charge for the reply is less than the amount prepaid, and the amount prepaid for a reply is not refunded.

13. The sender can have his telegram repeated from office to office by paying over and above the charge for the original transmission a quarter of that charge. If the telegram is for one of those countries for which there is a minimum charge per telegram, the lowest charge will be the minimum charge plus one quarter of the minimum charge. In that case "T C," which is charged for as one word, must be inserted immediately before the receiver's address.

14. Repetition is desirable for all telegrams in secret language.

15. On payment of a charge equal to the inland rate, the sender of a telegram can have it repeated between the office of origin and the office in Great Britain at which it is handed over to the Cable Company or foreign administration.

16. The sender may have a notice of the time at which his telegram was delivered transmitted to him by telegraph by payment of an additional rate for ten words. In that case "C R," which is charged for as one word, must be inserted before the receiver's address.

17. The receiver of a telegram can, within 72 hours after its delivery, request the Department to obtain the correction of passages or words which appear to be doubtful. For this purpose he must pay for two separate telegrams, viz.:—1. A telegram requesting the repetition, and containing an indication of the number of words prepaid for a reply. 2. A telegram of the length of the passage to be repeated, plus one word for the name of the addressee. The amount is refunded, on application to the Secretary, G.P.O., if it should prove that the telegram has been inaccurately transmitted. If the repetition shows that only a portion of the telegram was inaccurately transmitted, a proportionate part only of the amount paid for repetition will be remitted.

18. The receiver of a telegram may have it repeated from the office at which it was handed over by the Cable Company or Foreign Administration to the Department on depositing the ordinary charge for the transmission of an inland telegram, viz.—6d. if the part to be repeated contains 12 words or less, and  $\frac{1}{2}$ d. per word if the number of words is greater than 12. If an error has taken place on the lines of this Department, the amount deposited for the repetition will be refunded.

19. When the sender is not certain that the receiver will be found at the address given and wishes the telegram to be sent on to him he should insert, before the address, "F. S." which will be charged for as one word. Telegrams "to follow" are not accepted for Extra-European countries.

20. In telegrams intended to be left until called for at Telegraph Offices or at Post Offices, the words "Telegraphe Restant" or "Poste Restante" must be inserted as part of the receiver's address.

21. A telegram addressed to several persons in the same town, or to the same firm at different localities in the same town, is charged for as a single telegram, and a sum of 5d. must be prepaid for every extra copy to be delivered, if the number of chargeable words does not exceed 100; an additional sum of 5d. being charged for every additional 100 words or part of 100 words. In calculating the charge all the names and addresses are included. Telegrams having multiple addresses are not accepted for America.

22. Under no circumstances is the charge for an unrepeatable telegram, which has been inaccurately transmitted, refunded. The cost of a telegram inaccurately transmitted, of which the repetition to the terminal office has been paid by the sender, is returned if the telegram was rendered useless. The cost of telegrams which have failed to reach their destination, owing to some error on the part of the telegraph service; the cost of any word or words omitted during the transmission of an Extra-European telegram; and the cost of telegrams which have been delayed beyond two days in the case of European, and beyond six days in the case of Extra-European telegrams, from other causes than an interruption of the telegraphic communication, is returned to the senders. The cost of any telegrams rendered necessary in consequence of the non-delivery, delay, or incorrect transmission of a telegram is in no case returned, except as regards telegrams sent under the conditions mentioned in paragraph 18. The amount paid for a telegram cancelled before transmission is returned, less 5d. If the telegram is cancelled after transmission has commenced, but before it has reached the place to which it is addressed, any balance of charges which may be due will be returned.

23. Claims for reimbursement should be accompanied—1. In the case of non-delivery, by a written statement from the terminal office, or the addressee, that the telegram has not been received. 2. In the case of error in a collated telegram; or of delay, by the actual message form delivered to the addressee. 3. In the case of error in a telegram of which the receiver has paid the repetition from the office of origin, by the original message form delivered to the addressee, together with the form upon which the repeated telegram is written.

24. No claim for reimbursement for European telegrams will be entertained unless it is made within two months of the date of the original telegram; nor in the case of Extra-European telegrams, unless it is made within six months from the date of the original telegram. Foreign administrations decline to make any inquiry into complaints, except in cases of serious delay, which do not involve a return of the cost of the telegram within the limits of Rule 23. Telegrams can be sent from one place to another abroad by post. If the telegram be intended for delivery in the same country, no charge for postage is made; unless it is to be posted from one part to another of China or Japan. In the former case the sender is charged 5d., and in the latter 1s. 6d. for postage. If the telegram is to be posted as a registered letter, a fee of 5d. is collected from the sender. If it be intended for delivery in another country, and has to be forwarded over sea, a charge for postage is collected, the amount of which can be ascertained at any telegraph office.

BAILLIE'S INSTITUTION

Was founded by Mr. George Baillie, writer in Glasgow, who divested himself in his lifetime of his whole fortune (£18,000), which with its accumulations during twenty-one years from 11th November, 1863, he appointed to be applied to the erection and endowment of an Institution in Glasgow, to be called "Baillie's Institution," having for its objects, 1st, To aid the self-culture of the operative classes by means of free public libraries; and 2nd, The instruction of their children in unsectarian schools. The former of these, however, according to his direction, is alone proceeded with, as there is not a sufficiency of funds for both. The Dean, Council, and Clerk of the Faculty of Procurators in Glasgow were appointed perpetual preceptor, patrons, and directors of the institution, which was incorporated by royal charter, dated March 18, 1867. A scheme was afterwards prepared, under the Educational Endowments (Scotland) Act, 1882, for the administration of the trust, which was submitted to the Scotch Education Department, and was approved of by Her Majesty in Council. By it the Governing Body was increased to twelve, who are elected by various public bodies.

A free public library and reading room were opened at 48 Miller Street, on 29th September, 1887.—
Chamberlain, Thomas Stont, 178 St. Vincent Street; librarian, William Simpson.

STAMP AND LEGACY DUTIES, &c.

THE following is a list of Stamp Duties according to the schedule of the Stamp Act, 1891 (54 and 55 Vict. c. 39), which came into operation on 1st January, 1892, and except where otherwise mentioned, the sections referred to are those of the Act. Items relating solely to England and Ireland are omitted. The duties relating to Patent Medicine, Inventory, Stamp Account, Estate, Legacy, and Succession Duties, which remain under separate Acts, are inserted; also the exemptions which remain in force under other Acts. In the same session was passed the Stamp Duties Management Act, 54 and 55 Vict. c. 38. Generally, the items are given in the words of the schedule.

Except where express provision is made to the contrary, all duties are to be denoted by impressed stamps only.—§ 2.

Instruments are to be so stamped that the stamp may appear on the face of the instrument, and cannot be applied to any other instrument written upon the same piece of paper.—§ 3 (1). Every instrument on the same piece of paper is to be separately stamped.—§ 3 (2).

Instruments relating to several distinct matters are to be separately stamped in respect of each.—§ 4 (a). An instrument liable to ad valorem duty, if made for any other valuable consideration, is to be charged in respect of it, as if it were a separate instrument for such.—§ 4 (b).

All the facts and circumstances affecting the liability of an instrument to ad valorem duty, or the amount of it, are to be fully and truly set forth. If not, fine on person who executes and on person concerned in the preparation, £10.—§ 5.

Every condition of sale framed to preclude objection or requisition upon ground of insufficiency of stamp upon instrument executed after 16th May, 1888, and every contract, arrangement, or undertaking for assuming liability on account of insufficiency of stamp or indemnifying against such liability or insufficiency, void.—§ 117.

Instrument containing statement of current rate of exchange, or average price, and stamped accordingly, to be deemed duly stamped until statement shown to be untrue, and that instrument is in fact insufficiently stamped.—§ 6.

An appropriated stamp (by word on the face of it) cannot be used for an instrument of another description.—§ 10 (1). An instrument of the description to which a stamp is appropriated is not to be duly stamped unless stamped with the stamp appropriated to it.—§ 10 (2).

The duties apply to instruments executed in United Kingdom, or relating, wheresoever executed, to property situated, or to any matter or thing done or to be done, in United Kingdom.—§ 14 (4).

Transfer of share registered in a Colonial Register under Companies (Colonial Registers) Act, 1883, deemed transfer of property situated out of United Kingdom, and, unless executed in any part of United Kingdom, exempt from British Stamp Duty.—46 and 47 Vict. c. 30, § 3 (7) (a).

A statutory declaration made for the purpose of this section shall not be used against any person making the same in any proceeding whatever, except in an inquiry as to the duty with which the instrument to which it relates is chargeable; and every person by whom any such declaration is made shall, on payment of the duty chargeable upon the instrument to which it relates, be relieved from any fine or disability to which he may be liable, by reason of the omission to state truly in the instrument any fact or circumstance as aforesaid.

Persons dissatisfied may appeal.—§ 13. (1.) Any person who is dissatisfied with the assessment of the Commissioners, may, within twenty-one days after the date of the assessment, and on payment of duty in conformity therewith, appeal against the assessment to Her Majesty's Court of Exchequer, and may for that purpose require the Commissioners to state and sign a case, setting forth the question upon which their opinion was required, and the assessment made by them.

Mode of proceeding.—(2.) The Commissioners shall thereupon state and sign a case accordingly, and deliver the same to the person by whom it is required, and the case may within seven days thereafter be set down by him for hearing.

(3.) Upon the hearing of the case the court shall determine the question submitted, and, if the instrument in question is in the opinion of the court chargeable with any duty, shall assess the duty with which it is chargeable.

(4.) If it is decided by the court that the assessment of the Commissioners is erroneous, any excess of duty which may have been paid in conformity with the erroneous assessment, together with any fine or penalty which may have been paid in consequence thereof, shall be ordered by the court to be repaid to the appellant, with or without costs as the court may determine.

(5.) If the assessment of the Commissioners is confirmed, the court may make an order for payment to the Commissioners of the costs incurred by them in relation to the appeal.

ESTATE DUTY

(Including the Further or "Settlement Estate Duty," 57 and 58 Vict. c. 30, Part I.)

Estate duty is payable on the principal value of all property, heritable and movable, and proceeds and investments thereof, settled and unsettled, which passes on the death of a person dying after 1st August, 1894, either immediately or after an interval, or at a period ascertainable by reference to death, either certainly or contingently, and either originally or by way of substitutive limitation, including all property:—

(a.) Of which deceased at his death was competent to dispose;

(b.) In which deceased or any other person had an interest, ceasing on death of deceased—to extent to which a benefit accrues thereby; except where the interest is as holder of an office or recipient of a charity;

(c.) Taken as donationes mortis causa, or gifts inter vivos made within a year of death, or whenever made if immediate possession and enjoyment has not been assumed by donee, and thenceforth retained to exclusion of donor or benefit to him;

(d.) Which deceased has transferred to himself and any other person jointly, by disposition or otherwise, including a purchase or investment alone, or in concert with another, so that the beneficial interest therein, or in some part thereof, passes by survivorship to such other person;

(e.) Passing under any settlement by deed or instrument not taking effect as a will, whether made for valuable consideration or not between settler and any other person, or any trust in writing or otherwise whereby an interest for life, or other period determinable by reference to death, is reserved expressly or by implication to the settler, or whereby he may have reserved the right, by the exercise of any power, to restore to himself, or to reclaim the absolute interest therein, or in proceeds thereof;

(f.) Proceeds of life policies kept up by deceased for benefit of a donee, whether nominee or assignee, or part thereof in proportion to premiums paid by him, where partially kept up;

(g.) Annuities (other than a single annuity not exceeding £25, or the first granted of two or more such), or other interest purchased or provided by deceased alone or in concert with any other, to extent of beneficial interest accruing by survivorship or otherwise on death of deceased;

(h.) "Property comprised in any special assignation or disposition taking effect on death."

Executor or Intromitter, Inventory.—Every person who, as executor, nearest of kin, creditor, or otherwise, intromits with, or enters upon the possession or management of, any personal property wheresoever situate, of which deceased, at his death, was competent to dispose, is to pay the duty thereon, on exhibiting and recording in the proper sheriff court, within six months of the death, an inventory (or additional or corrective inventory) of deceased's estate [Forms A, B, and D 1] and may pay, in like manner, the duty on any other property passing on such death, which, by virtue of any testamentary disposition of the deceased, is under his control, or in the case of property not under his control, if the persons accountable for the duty thereon request him to make such payment. He may state on inventory that he does not know amount or value of certain property which passed on the death, and undertake, as soon as ascertained, to pay duty thereon, and any further duty payable by reason thereof on the other property in the inventory.

Executor is, to the best of his knowledge and belief, to specify in appropriate accounts annexed to the inventory (Form A 1) all the property in respect of which duty is payable upon the death of deceased, whether he is or is not accountable for the duty thereon. The husband or wife of the deceased is not chargeable with duty. If the legatee's husband or wife is of nearer consanguinity than the legatee, duty is payable according to such nearer relationship. (16 and 17 Vict. c. 51, § 11.)

This duty is payable for every legacy out of the personal or movable estate, or out of any personal estate the deceased has power to dispose of; and (in the case of a deceased dying before 1st July, 1888) upon every legacy out of or charged upon the real or heritable estate of the deceased, or out of any moneys to arise by the sale, mortgage, or other disposition of the deceased's real or heritable estate, or any part thereof, or out of heritable estate subject to his power of disposal: Also for the clear residue (after deducting debts, funeral expenses, legacies, and other charges first payable thereout) of the personal or movable estate, whether the title to such residue shall accrue by virtue of any testamentary disposition, or upon a partial or total intestacy, and (in the case of a deceased dying before 1st July, 1888) for the clear residue of the moneys to arise from the sale, mortgage, or other disposition of any real or heritable estate directed to be sold, mortgaged, or otherwise disposed of by any will or testamentary instrument. Such duties, in respect of real or heritable estate, to cease in the case of persons dying on or after 1st July, 1888, and in lieu thereof the duties payable under the Succession Duty Act, 1853, and the additional duty under the Act 51 Vict. c. 8 shall be payable (51 Vict. c. 8, § 21, 2).

Annuities commencing to be payable on the death of persons dying after 19th May, 1853, are valued for legacy duty according to tables annexed to the Succession Duty Act (16 and 17 Vict. c. 51); annuities commencing to be payable previous to that date, by the tables annexed to the Legacy Duty Act (36 Geo. III. c. 52).

Where the testator or intestate died before 1st June, 1881, duty is not exigible on legacies or residues under £20; but if a legatee take two or more legacies, under any testament, which shall together be of the amount of £20, each shall be charged with duty, though each or either may be separately under that amount. (See 44 Vict. c. 12, § 42.) Also where the value of the whole of the personal estate of any person dying after 24th March, 1880, does not amount to £100, no duty shall be chargeable in respect thereof, or of any portion thereof (43 Vict. c. 14, § 13).

The legacy duty presumptively payable upon an interest in expectancy may be commuted for a present payment (ib. § 11).

The Commissioners of Inland Revenue have power to accept a composition for legacy duty under a will (44 Vict. c. 12, § 43).

Duty on legacies and residues in arrears, interest thereon at the rate of 4 per cent. is payable (31 and 32 Vict. c. 124, § 9).

The duty commenced on the death of persons dying after the 19th May, 1853, and seems to be imposed on all property, both heritable and movable, passing by death, not liable to the duty on legacies and successions to personal estate upon intestacy—the duty imposed by the Legacy Duty Acts.

The duty on HERITABLE PROPERTY is charged on the annual value, after allowance of the necessary outgoings (§ 22), as an annuity for the life of the successor (§ 21), which is to be valued by tables annexed to Act.

PERSONAL PROPERTY is liable to duty according to the value of the succession; and money charged on heritage—heritable securities—is charged as personalty (§ 1).

The following are also exemptions from the succession duty:—

1. Successions from the same predecessor, passing on any death, not amounting in principal value to £100 (§ 18). 2. Legacies and personal property charged with legacy duty, in respect of the same acquisition (ib.)

At Glasgow, the twenty-second day of October, Eighteen hundred and ninety-one years, the Magistrates' Committee of "Police Commissioners, Glasgow," in virtue of the powers conferred on them by "The Glasgow Police Act, 1866," hereby make and enact the following Bye-laws for the Regulation of Hackney Carriages, and the conduct of the Proprietors and Drivers thereof, and ordain said Bye-laws to be strictly observed and enforced from and after the date of their being approved and confirmed by the Sheriff of Lanarkshire, in terms of said Statute, and until expressly altered.

Carriages not to be Licensed till Inspected.

No License shall be granted, or afterwards renewed, unless the Carriage, Horse, and Harness shall have been examined by the Chief Constable, Inspector of Hackney Carriages, or other person appointed by the Magistrates' Committee, and reported in writing, to the Magistrates' Committee, to have all the requisites and to be in a fit state to be licensed. No carriage will be licensed unless it be provided with Lamps, and have Roof, Springs, Wheels, Cushions, Linings, Panels, Doors, and Windows clean and in good Repair, and the Steps of entry safe and convenient, and that Skin, Rope, or Coir Mats, or other matting equally comfortable, are provided for Passengers' feet.

Owner's Name to be Painted on Carriage.

The name of the Owner of each Carriage shall be painted in a straight line on the outside of each door, immediately under the window, in Roman Letters not less than one inch in height, and of proportionate breadth, in a colour conspicuously different from that of the Carriage, and be continued legible during all the time the Carriage shall ply or be used for hire.

Number of License to be painted or affixed on Outside of Carriage.

The number of the License for each Carriage shall be painted on the Carriage, to be affixed on the back, and to be distinctly visible from the outside, and in figures not less than one inch in height, and of proportionate breadth, and be kept legible during all the time the Carriage shall ply or be used for hire.

Licenses to be numbered Consecutively and Duplicate signed by the Registrar.

The Licenses shall be numbered consecutively, in the order in which the same shall have been registered; and each Owner, at the time of receiving his License, shall be furnished with a Duplicate of such License, signed by the Registrar.

When Carriages cease to ply.

Whenever a Licensed Carriage ceases to ply, the Proprietor thereof shall give intimation immediately to the Registrar, Central Police Buildings, and shall return the License to him, provided the repairs are not finished within twenty-one days. Whenever a Licensed Carriage is sold by the Proprietor in whose name the License has been granted, or otherwise ceases to be his property, the License will lapse and become null and void.

Carriages to be in readiness.

The Owner of each Licensed Carriage shall have the same ready for hire at one of the Public Stands from Nine o'clock in the morning until Eleven o'clock at night, unless when engaged. And when within their respective yards, coach-houses, or stables, shall turn out for hire as soon as practicable, or can be done without injury to his servants or horses, after being called upon, between Eleven o'clock at night and Nine in the morning.

Carriages let out for Hire at other places, or met with, if not engaged.

All Carriages let out on any station or place for hire shall be subject to the Stand Rules; as also Carriages when met with if not at the time actually engaged.

Carriages to take their places on Stands in the order of their arrival.

All Carriages shall take their station on the Street Stands in the order of their arrival, and at such distance from each other as that persons walking may conveniently pass between them; and when any Carriage shall be called or driven off any Stand, the Carriage immediately behind shall draw up to the place vacated, and any other Carriage behind in the like order, and when a vacancy shall occur at the lower end of the line, it may be taken up by the first Carriage from the next division of the Stand, or if the first shall not be driven to it, then by the second, and so on in the order of the line. After setting down a fare, the Carriage may proceed to the nearest stand at which there is room.

Arrangement of Carriages at places of Public Amusement and Assembly.

All Carriages ordered back for a party, at any place of public amusement or assembly, shall have the preference of drawing up nearest to the door or entrance of such place, and shall drive up in the order in which they arrive. When a party is put down the Driver shall immediately pass on and not wait at the door, but take such place as the Police may direct; and all Carriages waiting for hire at any such place shall stand on the opposite side of the street, or at such other place as the Police may on such occasions direct, for the purpose of preventing confusion.

DRIVERS.

Every Driver shall, when he receives his License, be furnished with a Badge by the Registrar, and shall leave Half-a-Crown as security for the Badge, which sum will be returned when the Badge is given up. In the event of the Badge being injured while in possession of the Driver, the expenses of any necessary repairs will be deducted from the sum deposited.

He shall wear the Badge displayed conspicuously on his left breast above his outer garment, while on the stand or driving, or otherwise employed as a Driver, except when engaged at a marriage, or funeral, or country excursion, or airing, when he may wear his Badge concealed.

No Driver to lend or permit any other person to use his License or Badge, or to wear any other Badge than the one issued to him by the Registrar.

Every Driver who ceases to act, or whose License shall have been suspended by the Magistrate, or shall have expired, shall, within three days thereafter, deliver his License and Badge at the office of the Registrar.

He shall always have with him while on the Stand, or driving, a copy of the Clauses of the Glasgow Police Act, 1866, relative to Hackney Carriages and Drivers; also Bye-laws, and Tables of Fares and Distances, and Duplicate of Carriage License, and Reference Ticket, which he will exhibit, on demand, to any Constable, or to any person who has hired or used his Carriage, or who is about to do so; which Clauses, Bye-laws, or Tables of Distances, with the Duplicates of Carriage License, he will keep in a tin case, that they may at all times be clean and legible.

He shall keep his Carriage Lamps lighted, while driving, after sunset and before sunrise, during the months of October, November, December, January, and February.

Every Driver shall be cleanly in his person, and shall, when on the Stand or driving, wear a good hat, and other good, clean, and respectable clothes, and shall conduct himself, at all times, in a proper, civil, and decorous manner.

Driver to deliver Reference Ticket to Hirer of Carriage.

Every Driver shall tender to the person hiring his Carriage, when entering the Carriage, a Ticket, according to the pattern shown in the office of the Registrar, having printed thereon the number of the Carriage and of the Driver, the name and address of the Proprietor, and the following words—"Reference in case of incivility, loss, or overcharge."

Driver not to stand or Loiter in streets appropriated as Public Stands when full number of Carriages on Stand.

No Driver of any Carriage shall stand or loiter with the same in any of the squares, streets, or places appropriated as Public Stands, at the time when the full number of Carriages authorised to ply on the respective Stand shall be thereon, or in any street or place not appropriated as a Public Stand, except at places of public amusement or entertainment, and on the occasion thereof.

This society is quite unsectarian, and has for its object, by means of Christian colporteurs going from door to door, especially amongst the working classes, to circulate pure, attractive, and elevating literature, thereby endeavouring to supplant the pernicious and sensational books and periodicals which do so much evil to the community.

GLASGOW UNITED EVANGELISTIC ASSOCIATION.

Central Offices, 70 Bothwell Street.

This association was formed in 1874, for the purpose of uniting the churches in evangelistic work among the masses. Evangelistic services and open-air preaching are conducted (nightly) at Tent Hall, Steel Street, off Saltmarket, built at a cost of about £17,000; at Bethany Hall, Bernard Street, Biddgeton; at Mizpah Hall, 48 Pitt Street, Anderston, and various branches of Mizpah Band work throughout the city. A free breakfast is given every Sabbath in Tent Hall at 8.0 a.m. to upwards of 1200 people, gathered from the very poorest; and at 2 o'clock p.m., about 1000 poor children receive a Bible lesson and a dinner. Four Day Refuges have been carried on for some years, where children, who are entirely or worse than neglected, receive three meals a day, and are otherwise helped in their education. There are also Homes at Salcoats, in which neglected or abandoned children are entirely supported; in addition there is a Rescue Home at 302 St. Vincent Street for girls in danger of going astray. In connection with the Free Breakfast, a committee meets in the above hall every Monday night at 7 p.m. to enquire into cases of need. In connection with the children's Sabbath dinner a committee meets every Tuesday at 7 p.m., in the above hall, to inquire into the cases of poor children sent from any quarter. During the past year 7723 poor children were sent to the country for a fortnight, in connection with the Fresh-Air Fortnight Fund. A Bible-Training Institute for Christian workers has been established at No. 1 Blythswood Square, to qualify them for either the Home or Foreign field—of which Mr. John Anderson, formerly of Ardrossan, is superintendent. There is also the Bonar Memorial Mission to the Jews in Glasgow, at 4 Carlton Place. Income of the association, for all purposes, from voluntary contributions, about £18,000 per annum.

President, Right Hon. Lord Overton, 7 W. George st.; hon. secretaries, John R. Miller, 2 Somerset place, and J. W. Arthur, 40 Athole Gdns.; hon. treasurers, Robert Gourlay, Bank of Scotland, and Alex. Mac-Keith, 19 West Howard Street.

EVANGELIZATION SOCIETY (LONDON), SCOTTISH BRANCH.

Offices, Grove Street Institute, Glasgow.

Hon. secretary, T. A. Boyd, Esq., Shellston Iron Works; secretary, Mr. E. J. Mitchell, Grove Street Institute. Income, £1200 per year. Number of meetings taken annually, over 20,000.

The Evangelization Society is a company of preachers associated to preach the Gospel. As individuals they belong to various denominations of the Christian Church, but as Evangelists they belong to none. They go out through the Evangelization Society not as members of any particular Church, but only as Evangelists, to preach Jesus to the unconverted. The Society was established in 1868. Over one thousand Missions are supplied annually with Evangelists in England, Scotland, and Wales, on the application of Clergymen, Ministers, and others. As no stated charge is made for the services of its preachers, no place need be without the Gospel at the hands of the Evangelist so long as this Society exists.

The London Missionary Society was founded in 1795 to spread the knowledge of Christ among heathen and other unenlightened nations. It is entirely unsectarian; its fundamental principle being "not to send Presbyterianism, Independency, Episcopacy, or any other form of church order and government, but the glorious Gospel of the blessed God to the heathen, leaving it to the minds of the persons whom God may call into the fellowship of His Son from among them, to assume for themselves such form of church government as to them shall appear most agreeable to the Word of God." A large staff of male and female missionaries, drawn from the various evangelical denominations at home, and a much larger staff of trained native ministers and teachers, carry on its work in Africa, India, China, Polynesia, &c. Grove Street Institute is an unsectarian home mission organization, having halls built by public subscription at a cost of over £10,000, and situated on the margin of one of the most densely populated districts of the city. It is entirely dependent on voluntary contributions, and requires £1000 per annum to maintain its work. In addition to the Evangelistic, Medical Mission, Benevolent, and Temperance work, it has departments for fathers, mothers, working-lads, young women, and children—its agencies thus reaching whole families. It has been in operation for thirty-six years as an auxiliary to the churches of all denominations, with results which prove the soundness of its principles of mission work, and the great value of organization.

THE EAST END GOSPEL MISSION

(70 Risk Street, Calton, Glasgow)

AND CHILDREN'S SEA SIDE HOME AND RETREAT, DUNOON.

This Mission has for its object the elevation, religiously and socially, of the masses of the city slums, principally aiming at those who know no church or other place of worship. In addition to preaching the Gospel, whereby outcasts and fallen are brought to a knowledge of the truth, their temporal wants are cared for. During periods of distress, the Mission has been the means of saving many poor families from utter want and ruin, and to-day numbers are hard-working respectable members of society, who, if solely left to themselves, would be on the downward path of sin and misery. The accounts of the Mission are made up and vouched for annually and audited by Robert Blair, Esq., C.A., whose certificate is appended thereto.

The Children's Home and Retreat at Dunoon has proved a great boon to the little ones. As a provision against infection the children are examined by a medical man in Glasgow before leaving, and again on their arrival at the Home, where the local medical officer attends periodically.

Owing to the difficulty experienced by mistresses in obtaining suitable servants, and of the latter in obtaining employment, a Free Registry Office has been opened as a direct medium between mistresses and servants. The characters of the latter are personally investigated by the superintendent before the servants are recommended, and the result has been most gratifying. No fees whatever are charged. The Mission is supported by voluntary subscriptions and donations, and a copy of the Annual Report with certified abstracts of accounts is sent to each subscriber. T. G. A. Scott, superintendent; P. E. Fitzpatrick, secretary.

THE HOUSES OF SHELTER.

THE HOUSE OF SHELTER, 114 HILL STREET, GARNETHILL.

"The Shelter" was instituted in 1850. Its object is to provide a home for females who, on their liberation from prison, are desirous to reform and to support themselves by honest industry. The number of inmates in "the Shelter" is generally 50. They are employed in needlework, the institution receiving the proceeds of their labour, in return for which the inmates are lodged, fed, and clothed. In addition to this, a suitable outfit is given to those who remain a full year, and go out with the approval of the committee; and an effort is made to find suitable employment for the women when they leave the Home.

MISSION SHELTER, 15 WHITEVALE STREET
(Formerly Prison Gate Mission).

This Home was begun in 1878, and its object also is to provide for females who have been in prison, and desire to lead a better life. The two homes are worked much on the same lines as to the length of stay required and the food and outfit given; also as to the effort made to find occupation for the women when they leave, after remaining their full time—i.e., a year. The special feature of the Mission Shelter is its large washing-house and laundry, in which the greater number of the 70 women are employed, the rest being engaged in sewing, with the exception of a few, who are occupied in knitting or housework.

Both Homes are equally dependent on the public for employment.

A. A. Fergusson, president; Miss M. E. Mitchell, 4 Claremont terrace, hon. secretary; W. R. M. Church, C.A., 104 West George Street, hon. treasurer.

DISCHARGED PRISONERS AID SOCIETY.

Burnside St., 98 Duke Street.

The Hon. the Lord Provost, Sir James Bell, Bart., chairman; Jas. Nicol, City Chamberlain, hon. treas.; A. A. Fergusson, hon. secretary; John Lawson, superintendent male prisoners; Mrs. Elder, bible woman for female prisoners.

48,000 discharged prisoners and convicts have been dealt with by us since March, 1889, at which period the directors inaugurated a change in the method of their operations among this unfortunate class of our criminal population. Our new building for the reception of male and female discharged prisoners is all but finished, and will be occupied by the society in May. It is situated in a prominent position in Cathedral Square, within a few yards from the exit gate of Duke Street Prison, from whence, with those from Barlinnie Prison, the prisoners are daily discharged. There they are met every morning at half past eight by two of our officials, and are each presented with a card of invitation to our hall, where a hearty breakfast of coffee with an ample supply of bread and butter is provided for them. After family worship every one of this large number is conversed with, and the name and the charge against him, with the sentence, entered in our books. From the outset they are informed that help in shape of money is to cease, the Society being now prepared to adopt the plan of securing remunerative employment for every man who was disposed honestly to accept it. To this course we have steadily adhered, and the result is that during the six and a half years of its prosecution 5200 men have been placed in various large industrial works in the city and neighbourhood. In 1895 work was found for 1059 men. Such a record of rescue work speaks for itself, and suggests the inquiry—"What would have been the state of matters among these men had no such helping hand as ours been held out to them?"

Admission to the Houses of Shelter in Garnethill and Whitevale Street is procured for those women who desire to break with the old courses.

Pres., Mrs. Playfair, 12 Woodside Terrace; secretary, Miss Telford; treasurer, Mrs. Barclay, 6 Colebrook Terrace.

The aim of the Society is to provide warm clothing for the poor fever patients when about to be dismissed from the comforts of the hospitals to their own homes. In too many cases their original clothing is scanty and utterly insufficient to protect even a vigorous person from the cold. But for the aid of the society they would, when divested of the warm suits provided for use within the hospital, be sent out in tattered garments, as well as with enfeebled bodies, almost certainly to the permanent injury of their health. The utmost care is taken that the articles are given to the needy and deserving only. There is no convalescent home for poor fever patients.

RAILWAY BENEVOLENT INSTITUTION, FOR THE RELIEF OF RAILWAY OFFICERS AND SERVANTS, THEIR ORPHANS, WIDOWS, AND CHILDREN, WHEN IN DISTRESSED CIRCUMSTANCES.

INSTITUTED MAY, 1858.

The Scottish Branch is under the special patronage of Her Most Gracious Majesty the Queen, who has sent a donation of £50 to the fund in Scotland. Scotch branch office, 302 Buchanan st., Glasgow. Committee of management in Scotland—Chairman, John Blackburn, Esq., Caledonian Railway; Wm. Brown, Esq., Glasgow & South-Western Railway, John Conacher, Esq., North British Railway, D. Cooper, Esq., Glasgow & South-Western Railway, George Cunningham, Esq., North British Railway, D. Deuchars, Esq., North British Railway, W. Garrow, Esq., Highland Railway, A. Hillhouse, Esq., Caledonian Railway, Irvine Kempt, Esq., Caledonian Railway, D. M'Dougall, Esq., North British Railway, William Moffatt, Esq., Great North of Scotland Railway, Henry Evans, Esq., Glasgow & South-Western Railway, J. S. Stuart, Esq., Great North of Scotland Railway, Jas. Thompson, Esq., Caledonian Railway, George Thomson, Esq., Highland Railway; bankers, National Bank of Scotland (St. Enoch Square branch).

This institution (which has no political objects) affords a channel for those who sympathize with railway servants through which to help them in the time of need, and the extent of its sphere of usefulness depends in a great measure upon public support. It has been established to provide for the necessitous members, orphans, children, and widows of the railway officers and servants in the United Kingdom. Its object is to clothe, maintain, and educate orphan children, and to grant relief by annuities and money allowances to members who, from old age, disease, or accident, may be unable any longer to obtain a livelihood, and to the widows of those who may be left in distressed circumstances. Railway officers subscribe 10s. 6d. per annum, railway servants 8s. per annum, to constitute them members, or they may subscribe 2s. per annum to the orphanage only. One moiety of the funds contributed by the public is apportioned between an officers' department and a servants' department in proportion to the amount the members severally subscribe; the other moiety of the donations is applicable to a special benevolent fund for relieving distress amongst officers or servants, whether members of the institution or not, and the widows and orphans of men killed in the performance of their duty. The sum set apart for the orphans of officers is appropriated to their maintenance and education in private establishments selected by their friends and approved by the board of management. Should the funds be insufficient to provide pensions or school benefits for all qualified applicants, there is an election by ballot, and the election of annuitants and orphans is vested in the subscribers, who have also the privilege of recommending cases for gratuities out of the special benevolent fund. In dispensing relief the rules of the institution provide that "the most necessitous must at all times be first relieved."

Donations and subscriptions.—A donation of £105 in one sum, or in payments of not less than £10 10s. each, constitutes the donor a patron or patroness for life, with the privilege of fifteen votes. A donation of £52 10s. in one sum, or in payments of not less than £10 10s. each, constitutes the donor a vice-president for life, with the privilege of six votes. A donation of £10 10s. constitutes the donor a life subscriber, with the privilege of one vote. A yearly payment of £1 1s. (or in quarterly or half-yearly instalments) constitutes a subscriber, with the privilege of two votes. An annual subscription of 10s. 6d. constitutes a subscriber, with one vote. Any three donors or subscribers may also recommend applicants qualified for relief from the special benevolent fund.

Appeal.—The Scotch committee of management respectfully and earnestly appeal for aid to the shareholders of railways individually, as specially interested in those upon whom devolve the executive duties in their railway establishments, and to the benevolent of all classes, who are either directly or indirectly benefited by the services of a numerous, well-disciplined, and laborious class of public servants. Donations and subscriptions will be gratefully received and duly acknowledged by the secretary for Scotland, Robert Gibb, Caledonian Railway, 302 Buchanan Street, Glasgow.

ROYAL NATIONAL LIFEBOAT INSTITUTION. GLASGOW BRANCH.

Local Committee—Wm. Cairney, Esq., chairman; J. P. Maclay, Esq., Sir John Burns, Bart., David M'Cowan, Esq., R. Hope Robertson, Esq., Captain M'Fee, William Burrell, Esq., Jas. Lilburn, Esq., G. M. Kerr, Esq., J. A. Roxburgh, Esq.; hon. treasurer, Leonard Gow, jun., Esq., 19 Waterloo St.; secretary, William Martin, 116 St. Vincent Street.

During the past year the institution continued to use its best endeavours to improve the lifeboat service, and a large sum was expended by it in the maintenance in an efficient state of the 44 lifeboats on the coast of Scotland. This being so, the Glasgow committee would again earnestly urge upon the public the necessity of supporting this most deserving institution, especially as the city is so intimately connected with ships and shipping. They feel that many of the present subscribers might increase their subscriptions, and new firms might add their names to the list. The annual subscriptions to this branch in 1895 amounted to £514.

During the past year (1895) the institution expended £58,503 on the various lifeboat establishments on our coasts. The total expenditure was in excess of the income of the year. Last year the institution granted rewards amounting to £10,434, in addition to 74 medals or other honorary testimonials for the saving of 709 lives and 36 vessels, including grants to relatives of men lost on service and to injured men. There are 303 lifeboats on our shores, and during the society's existence the lives saved either by its boats or by special exertions, for which it has granted rewards, is 39,354. Surely this is a work that calls for every support from all classes of the community.

Form of Bequest of money, stock, or other personal estate.

I give and bequeath to the Royal National Lifeboat Institution for the Preservation of Life from Shipwreck, founded in 1824, London, the sum of £ _____, for the use of the said Institution; and I declare that the said legacy shall be paid free from Legacy Duty, and that the receipt of the Treasurer of the said Institution shall be a sufficient discharge for the same.

Real or leasehold property may also now be left by will to the Institution.

Annual subscriptions, donations, or legacies will be thankfully received by the secretary or treasurer.

NATIONAL SECULAR SOCIETY.

President, G. W. Foote.

GLASGOW BRANCH—Hall, 110 Brunswick Street.
Sunday Meetings, 12 noon and 6.30 p.m.

Principles and Objects.—Secularism teaches that conduct should be based on reason and knowledge. It knows nothing of divine guidance or interference; it excludes supernatural hopes and fears; it regards happiness as man's proper aim, and utility as his moral guide. Secularism affirms that progress is only possible through liberty, which is at once a right and a duty; and therefore seeks to remove every barrier to the fullest equal freedom of thought, action and speech. Secularism declares that theology is condemned by reason as superstitious and by experience as mischievous, and assails it as the historic enemy of progress. Secularism accordingly seeks to dispel superstition; to spread education; to disestablish religion; to rationalise morality; to promote peace; to dignify labour; to extend material well-being, and to realise the self-government of the people. All communications to be addressed to Mr. A. Lindsay, 82 Ingram Street.

Over 300 patients suffering from Cancer and allied diseases are annually under observation and treatment at the Institution.

"The Institution is now completing its Tenth year of usefulness and continues to be devoted to—(1) The investigation of a disease so long considered as incurable, with special reference to its causes and cure; (2) the advancement of medical and surgical science in the treatment of Cancer, by preserving the continuity of accredited remedies hitherto in use, and adopting such others as increasing knowledge and experience prove worthy of confidence—with the view of obviating, if not altogether superseding the use of the knife; (3) the relief and restoration to health and usefulness of such patients as are not incurable, and (4) affording isolation and privacy to patients—particularly to females, whose aversion to any exposure or publicity in their treatment, not only accounts for much of the delay and suffering endured before seeking relief, but is answerable for the large number of hopeless cases that have to be dealt with from day to day."

As hitherto, the Institution is conducted and maintained on the principle that all patients pay according to their circumstances. To enable those whose circumstances do not admit of the usual charge, yet are desirous of retaining their self-respect and independence—arrangements are made by which the benefits of the Institution are made available at the minimum charge of Ten shillings per week. As this charge, however, does not meet the cost of accommodation, maintenance, nursing, and treatment, the difference is supplemented from the funds of the Institution. For this supplementary fund subscriptions and donations are earnestly solicited and will be received and acknowledged by either the Hon. Treasurer or Hon. Secretary. All communications regarding patients are to be made to Dr. Murray at the Institution.

LIBRARIES, NEWS-ROOMS, AND NEWSPAPER OFFICES.

THE MITCHELL LIBRARY.

21 Miller Street.

Founded on a bequest of the late Stephen Mitchell, Esq. Mr. Mitchell died in April, 1874, and the bequest was accepted by the Town Council in July of the same year.

The library was opened November 1, 1877, and is open daily from 9.30 a.m. till 10 p.m. uninterruptedly. It now contains about 117,000 volumes, and is the largest library in Scotland to which the general public have a right of free admission. The books are not to be taken away, but may be read in the library, which has been conveniently furnished for this purpose, there being separate accommodation for ladies and for students. There is a magazine room, where may be seen about 400 of the principal weekly, monthly, and quarterly periodicals of all classes—literary, artistic, scientific, trade, technical, and general—and including a number of American, German, and French serials. The admission is free, and no introduction or guarantee is required. In the selection of the books to form the library, efforts have been made to give it a thoroughly representative character, so that students in every department of knowledge will derive advantage from its use. Collections of books relating to Scotland, and particularly to Glasgow and the West, are forming. The "Poets Corner" is believed to contain the largest and most valuable library of Burns and Scottish Poets and Dramatists in existence. Much attention has also been devoted to securing standard works on industrial and technological subjects, from which many persons engaged in manufactures, especially such as include design, derive much advantage.

The number of readers is large—over 2000 daily—the average number of volumes consulted daily being from 1700 to 1800. The total number issued from the commencement to 29th February, 1896, was 6,901,874, exclusive of the reading of the periodicals in the magazine room, the references to which are estimated to be not less in number than the volumes issued.

The library is administered by the following committee of the Town Council: the Hon. the Lord Provost; Councillor Graham, convener; Councillor Colquhoun, LL.D., sub-convener; Bailie Dick, Bailie M'Cutcheon, Dean of Guild H. Brown, Treasurer J. Gray, River Bailie Sinclair, Councillors W. F. Anderson, J. Battersby, William Bilsland, J. Ferguson, Alex. A. Cutlibert, Wm. Fife, W. Finlay, A. J. Hunter, J. Ure Primrose, D. M. Stevenson; F. T. Barrett, librarian; John Ingram, sub-librarian.

STIRLING'S & GLASGOW PUBLIC LIBRARY.

48 Miller Street.

Stirling's Public Library was founded by Walter Stirling, merchant and ex-bailie of the city, and son of Dr. William Stirling, a well-known Glasgow surgeon of the last century. The bequest came into effect at the death of Mr. Stirling on 18th January, 1791. It consisted of the founder's own library (802 volumes), his house in Miller Street (where the library now stands), a share in the Tontine Society, and the sum of £1000. Mr. Stirling directed that the library was to be free to any one, and was to exist in perpetuity. In 1825 Mr. William Jameson, jun., bequeathed his books to the library. In 1871 Dr. Scouler, professor of mineralogy in the Royal Society of Dublin, bequeathed his collection of books; and in the same year the Glasgow Public Library, a subscription lending library started in 1804, amalgamated with Stirling's Library, and the title then became Stirling's and Glasgow Public Library.

The library contains over 50,000 volumes and pamphlets, including many rare, valuable, and useful works. It possesses several manuscripts (two on vellum), and nearly thirty examples of fifteenth century printing, the earliest being 1469, or fourteen years after the issue of the first printed book. It is the depository of the only complete set in the West of Scotland of the publications of Her Majesty's Patent Office, which consist of over 150,000 separate publications. They date from 1617 when the first British patent was enrolled, and come up to the latest patents issued. The Board of Trade recently presented a complete set of the Trade Marks Journal to the library; and supply the current numbers as issued. The Government of the United States have also presented their Specifications of Patents from the 28th March, 1893, and continue to supply the current numbers as issued.

The foundation being inadequate for the proper maintenance of the library the directors organized a system of lending of books. This has been immensely developed in recent years, and a large supply of new books and magazines—nearly 2000 annually of the latter—render it one of the best, as it is by far the most extensive and most moderately rated lending library in the city and district. The terms are—For two works and one magazine at a time, one year, 10s. 6d.; six months, 7s. 6d.; life, £5 5s.; for one work (no magazine) at a time, one year, 5s. 3d. Members may join at any time (no entry money), and may change their books and magazines singly or together as often as they choose. The library is open every lawful day from 10 a.m. till 10 p.m.

Board of Directors—President, the Hon. Sir James Bell, Bart., Lord Provost; vice-president, J. Barclay Murdoch; elected by the Town Council, Councillor Colquhoun, L.L.D., Councilor Graham, and Councilor Walter Paton; elected by the Merchants House, Robert Crawford, David Murray, L.L.D. and Matthew Arthur; elected by the Presbytery of Glasgow, Rev. David Millar, Rev. G. Gibson Gunn, and Rev. John Maclean, D.D.; elected by the Faculty of Physicians and Surgeons, Dr. Buchanan, Dr. John Barlow, and Dr. George Dickson; elected by the Subscribers, Donald M'Corquodale, J. Forbes Ferguson, Wm. Hamilton, Peter Johnstone, J. O. Mitchell, L.L.D., J. M. Cunningham, J. B. Murdoch, and Robert Guy.

Hon. treasurer, J. M. Cunningham; hon. secretary, John Forbes Ferguson; librarian, W. J. S. Paterson.

These Safety Valves have already been supplied to many mansions, houses, public buildings, and institutions throughout the country, including the Vice-Regal Lodge, Chief Secretary's Lodge, Under Secretary's Lodge, Police Courts, Four Courts, Dublin, etc., the order being for 36 Safety Valves for the Government Buildings.

IMPORTANT CAUTION.—Turnbull's Safety Valves are acknowledged to be the most simple and the most efficient Safety Valves known. But for the sake of a small extra profit worthless imitations are sometimes recommended by unscrupulous vendors. Besides the trouble, expense, annoyance, and fancied security which follow the adoption of such imitations, there is absolutely increased danger. Householders, therefore, cannot be too careful in making sure that the Safety Valve adopted can be relied upon, and not a dangerous and worthless sham.

The Glenboig Company are the Sole Makers of the "GLENBOIG" and "STAR GLENBOIG" brands, which stand first among Fire Bricks, for the construction of all kinds of furnaces subjected to the highest heats and most sudden changes of temperature.

The use of these Bricks is found to be economical in districts where Fire Bricks are made and sold at half the price of the "Glenboig" brand, but how much more economical must they be when shipped abroad and where both qualities bear the same charge for carriage?

The Glenboig Company purchased the Cumbernauld and Gartcosh Works for the purpose of meeting the demands of buyers who require a cheaper Fire Brick of good quality, and they offer them with confidence, knowing that they are unsurpassed by any other Fire Brick made in Scotland, excepting "Glenboig" alone.

All articles manufactured by the Company bear one or other of the undernoted Trade Mark—

Purchasers are recommended to see to it that the brand purchased is really stamped on the goods.

GAS RETORTS.—The great number of Glenboig Retorts now in use in the principal Gas Works at Home and Abroad is the best evidence of the high estimation in which this brand is held by Gas Engineers, who know the importance of using "Retorts that can be depended upon."

SEWAGE PIPES, TRAPS, &c.—The Company are also manufacturers of Glazed Fire Clay Pipes, and all descriptions of Junctions, Traps, &c. Makers of the "Waverley" Combination Traps and Inspection Chambers, acknowledged to be the best yet before the Public; a sure preventive against Sewer Gases entering the house.

The "Economic Patent Stoves"

HAVE MET A LONG-FELT WANT. Although but recently introduced they are now so well and favourably known, that at this time of day a detailed description of the principle of them, or a more than summary statement of their pre-eminent advantages, is no longer required. The leading features are:—

The noxious fumes inseparably arising from the combustion of gas or oil are COMPLETELY CONDENSED within the Stoves, and passed off into the Movable Tray beneath, in the form of a liquid quite devoid of smell, and containing a large amount of free sulphur.

ECONOMIC

STOVES.

Unsolicited Opinions.

Dr ANDREW WILSON, F.R.S.E., Editor of Health, says :

"The problem of heating our houses, and especially our lobbies and bedrooms in a hygienic, cheap, and satisfactory fashion, appears to us to be capable of realisation . . . . The peculiarity and special feature of these Stoves is their absolute freedom from smell, while to this sine qua non in the matter of heating and lighting we must add another important fact, namely, that the Stoves under notice are of a most economic kind, and will burn from three to six hours, according to size, at a cost of one penny. These Stoves are most cleanly in action, and give off no smoke, while they burn noiselessly, and are free from all risk or danger to life. Further praise or commendation than is contained in these facts no invention of the kind can need or require."

Dr CLARK, Ph.D., F.C.S., F.I.C., City Analyst for Glasgow, says :

"The combustion seemed to be perfect, and I could not detect any smell. Superior to any other with which I am acquainted."

The "IRONMONGER" says :

"There is no smell either with gas or oil . . . . The atmosphere of the apartment is pure and agreeable . . . . The Oil Stoves for isolated places country villages, &c., are invaluable."

A SEVERE TEST.

The head gardener of a large establishment in the South of England writes, under date, 31st January, 1889.—"I have used your Gas Stoves (two of them) in two of the forcing houses here, and found them to work admirably. They evidently do not injure the most sensitive flowers."

W. B. DICK'S PATENT EXTINGUEURS.

Tested and Triumphant.

By way of exhibiting the power of L'Extincteur over the ordinary appliances that have hitherto been solely in use, we append the results of a competitive trial that took place in Plumstead Marshes by command of the War Office Authorities, and under their superintendence. These results show the comparative merits of L'Extincteur, the Hydropult, and the Hand Pump supplied to the London Fire Brigade. The piles for the contest consisted of three erections of timber, each forming three sides of a square 27 feet 9 inches by 9 feet 8 inches high, fitted up with shelves stuffed with highly inflammable material from Woolwich Arsenal.

These erections having been ignited and allowed to burn fiercely, the order was given to extinguish the fires, with the following results:—

L'EXTINCTEUR.—The fire attacked by TWO MEN, and extinguished in  $7\frac{1}{2}$  minutes.

HYDROPULT.—The fire attacked by FIVE MEN, with an unlimited supply of water, and extinguished in fifteen minutes.

HAND PUMP.—The fire attacked by SEVEN MEN, with an unlimited supply of water, who could not extinguish it, nor make any impression upon it.

The Fire subsequently Extinguished by L'Extincteur.
